

Jersey Law 9/1997

FATAL ACCIDENTS (AMENDMENT) (JERSEY) LAW 1997

A LAW to amend the Fatal Accidents (Jersey) Law 1962, sanctioned by Order of Her Majesty in Council of the

19th day of MARCH 1997

(Registered on the 11th day of April 1997)

STATES OF JERSEY

The 19th day of November 1996

THE STATES, subject to the sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, have adopted the following Law –

ARTICLE 1

After paragraph (1) of Article 4 of the Fatal Accidents (Jersey) Law 1962¹ there shall be inserted the following new paragraph –

“(1A) In assessing damages payable to the spouse or child of a deceased person in respect of the death of that deceased person in any action under this Law, no account shall be taken of the re-marriage or prospects of re-marriage of the spouse of the deceased person.”.

ARTICLE 2

(1) This Law may be cited as the Fatal Accidents (Amendment) (Jersey) Law 1997.

¹ Volume 1961–1962, page 594.

Jersey Law 9/1997

*Fatal Accidents (Amendment) (Jersey) Law
1997*

(2) This Law shall not apply to any cause of action arising on a death which occurs before the Law comes into force.

G.H.C. COPPOCK

Greffier of the States.