STATES OF JERSEY.

The 5th day of June, 1957.

THE STATES, subject to the sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, have adopted the following Law: -

ARTICLE 1

(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, regulations made by the States in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the Order in Council of the twenty-sixth day of December, 1851,¹ or by the said Order in Council and by Article 49 of the Road Traffic (Jersey) Law, 1956,² may include provisions -

- (a) awarding the fine imposed for any offence against the Regulations for the benefit of the parish in which the offence was committed;

*Jersey Law 23/1957 Policing of Roads, Parks and Sea Beaches
(Application of Fines) (Jersey) Law, 1957*

- (b) directing the purpose to which fines so awarded shall be applied;
- (c) empowering the Constable or a Centenier of the parish in which any such offence is committed to impose and levy a fine summarily, so, however, that any provision so made shall not apply where the offender refuses to accept the decision of the Constable or Centenier.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article shall apply only in relation to an offence in respect of which the maximum fine does not exceed [five pounds]³ and in respect of which imprisonment may not be imposed otherwise than for non-payment of that fine.

(3) Where any fine is levied by a Constable or Centenier in exercise of powers conferred upon him by virtue of this Article, he shall give a receipt for the same.

ARTICLE 2
