- 12 In the case of a company which is an umbrella fund, any of its constituent parts which is a futures and options fund, a geared futures and options fund or a property fund, or any such additional category of pool as may be prescribed from time to time by the Commission, shall invest in a manner acceptable to the Commission.

2.09 Repurchase of units

The unitholders must be entitled to have their units repurchased or cancelled in accordance with the terms of the constitutional documents at a price related to the net value of the property to which the units relate and determined in accordance with those terms; but a recognized fund shall be treated as complying with this Article if the constitutional documents and the management agreement require the manager and the directors to ensure that a unitholder is able to sell his units on an investment exchange at a price not significantly different from that mentioned in this Article.

2.10 Alteration of funds, etc.

- 1 The manager of a unit trust, or in the case of a company its directors, shall give written notice to the Commission of –

- and any notice given in respect of a proposed alteration involving a change in a document referred to in (a) or (b) shall be accompanied by a certificate, satisfactory to the Commission, signed by an Advocate or Solicitor of the Royal Court to the effect that the change will not affect the compliance of the document with the requirements of these Rules.
- 2 The directors or depositary, as the case may be, shall give written notice to the Commission of any proposal to give to the manager notice of removal under Article 7.16.
 - 3 Effect shall not be given to any proposal referred to in paragraph 1 or 2 unless –

 - b. activities for the purposes of or in connection with those mentioned in sub-paragraph a.

2.12 Avoidance of exclusion clauses

Any provision contained in the constitutional documents, or in any contract made with the recognized fund or its depositary, or otherwise shall be void insofar as it would have the effect of exempting the manager, or the depositary, or any officer of the recognized fund from liability for any failure to exercise due care and diligence in the discharge of his functions in respect of the recognized fund.

PART 3

PROSPECTUS

3.01 Preparation of a prospectus

- 1 A document ('prospectus') stating prominently at the head of the first page or on the cover page that the document is a prospectus prepared in accordance with these Rules shall be prepared by the manager and, in the case of a company, shall be approved by the directors of the company.
- 2 A prospectus shall contain the matters specified in Schedule 2 and may contain any other matter which does not conflict with and is not inconsistent with the requirements of any enactment, including these Rules.

3.02 Publication of prospectus

- 1 The manager of a recognized fund and, in the case of a company, the company –
 - a. shall not market units in that recognized fund unless –
 - (i) a prospectus has been prepared in English and approved in accordance with Article 3.01, and
 - (ii) arrangements have been made for the prospectus to be available in sufficient numbers to enable the manager or company, as the case may be, to satisfy those who accept the offer referred to in sub-paragraph b., and
 - (iii) a copy of that document has been sent –
 - (A) to the Commission, and
 - (B) to the depositary;
 - b. subject to paragraph 2, shall not effect any sale of units in the recognized fund to any person until it has offered that person free of charge a copy of the prospectus in English.
- 2 The requirement in paragraph 1b to offer a copy of the prospectus before effecting a sale of units does not apply if the sale is effected otherwise than in the course of a conversation conducted face to face or by telephone, but the manager or the company, as the case may be, must send free of charge a copy of the prospectus to the purchaser if he asks for it.

3.03 False or misleading prospectus

- 1 The manager and, in the case of a company, the directors of the company are responsible for the accuracy of the prospectus.
 - 2 A person shall not be responsible under paragraph 1 if the prospectus is published without his knowledge or consent and, on becoming aware of

- publication, he forthwith gives notice to the Commission that it was so published.
- 3 A person who is responsible under paragraph 1 for the accuracy of any prospectus shall, subject to paragraphs 4 and 5 –
- a. ensure that the prospectus does not contain any untrue or misleading statement or omit any matter required by these Rules to be included in it; and
 - b. without prejudice to any liability incurred apart from this Article, be liable to pay compensation to any person who has acquired any units in the recognized fund and suffered loss in respect of them as a result of any such statement or omission.
- 4 A person is not in breach of paragraph 3a. and shall not incur liability under paragraph 3b. if at the time when the prospectus was prepared or, in the case of a director, approved he reasonably believed, having made such enquiries (if any) as were reasonable, that the statement was true and not misleading, or that the omission was proper, and that –
- a. he continued in that belief until the time of the relevant acquisition of units in the recognized fund; or
 - b. the acquisition took place before it was reasonably practicable to bring a correction to the attention of potential purchasers; or
 - c. he had already taken all such steps as it was reasonable for him to have taken to secure that a correction was brought to the attention of potential purchasers; or
 - d. the person who acquired the units was not materially influenced or affected by that statement or omission in making his decision.
- 5 A person is also not in breach of paragraph 3a. and shall not incur liability under paragraph 3b. if –
- a. before the acquisition a correction had been published in a manner calculated to bring it to the attention of persons likely to acquire the units in question; or
 - b. he took all such steps as it was reasonable for him to take to secure such publication and reasonably believed that it had taken place before the units were acquired; or
 - c. the person who acquired the units knew at the time that the statement was false or misleading or of the omission; or
 - d. the issue arose only because of a failure to revise the prospectus, and that he reasonably believed at the time of the failure that there was no change or new matter such as to call for a revision of the prospectus under Article 3.04.1.
- 6 For the purposes of this Article a revised prospectus shall be treated as a different prospectus from the prospectus to which the revision was made.
- 7 References in this Article to the acquisition of units include references to contracting to acquire them.

3.04 Revision of prospectus

- 1 a prospectus shall be –
 - a. revised immediately upon the occurrence of any materially significant change in the matters stated therein or upon the arising of any materially significant new matter which ought to be stated therein in advance of an annual review so far as is necessary to take account of that change or matter; and
 - b. reviewed at least once in every twelve months, and revised to take account of any change or any new matter, other than one which reasonably appears to the manager and, in the case of a company, the directors to be insignificant.
- 2 A revision of a prospectus may take the form of a complete substitution for the previous prospectus or of a supplement to that prospectus but, whichever it is, the date as at which the revision was made must be prominently displayed.
- 3 Without prejudice to paragraph 6 of Article 3.03, references in these Rules to a prospectus prepared in accordance with Article 3.01 include references to a prospectus revised in accordance with this Article.
- 4 This Article is subject to the procedural requirements affecting certain amendments to a prospectus in other Articles in these Rules.

PART 4

PRICING AND DEALING

SECTION A

Initial offers and unitisations

4.01 Introduction to this Part and to Section A

- 1 Units in a pool may be created or cancelled only by the trustee or company and, subject to Articles 4.05 and 4.09.8, only upon receipt by the trustee, or the company and the depositary, as the case may be, of written instructions given by, or an application made by, the manager (which for the purposes of this Part in relation to any recognized fund shall be termed “creation instructions” and “cancellation instructions”). Creation instructions or cancellation instructions may be given at any time.
- 2 A pool shall have the choice, subject to Section D, of operating on an historic or forward pricing basis and subject to Article 4.10.1 of operating on a single pricing or a dual pricing basis.
- 3 Articles 4.02 - 4.04 apply to the setting up of a new pool by way of an initial offer, and apply during the period of such an offer.
- 4 The period of the initial offer is not to exceed 21 days and an initial offer must, subject to Article 4.04, be kept open for the period of the initial offer.

4.02 Creation of units: initial offer

- 1 During the period of the initial offer and on the business day after it, units in the pool may be created by the trustee or company under paragraph 2 or 4.
- 2 The manager may give creation instructions at the beginning of the first business day in the period.
- 3 At or before the beginning of that day, the manager must irrevocably choose, in respect of that initial offer, to proceed either under paragraph 4a (‘up and running’) or under paragraph 4b (‘pay over and wait’) and must notify his choice to the depositary and the company.
- 4 Where on any business day during the period the manager assumes any obligation for the sale of units, he must, depending on his choice under paragraph 3, either –
 - a. give creation instructions, at the beginning of the next business day, to create units in such number at least as will enable the

- manager immediately to fulfil that obligation, whether from the units so created or from other units; or
- b. proceed as follows –
- (i) pay to the depositary (in any case where the purchaser has sent a remittance) on the day of receipt of the remittance or on the next business day, the total amount, and
 - (ii) as soon as the period of the initial offer has come to an end, give creation instructions to create units in such number at least as will enable the manager to fulfil his obligations for the sale of units whether from the units so created or from other units.
- 5 The creation instructions shall state the number of units to be created, expressed either as a number of units or as an amount in value (or as a combination of the two).
- 6 The trustee, or company, must or may respectively (subject to Article 4.11), create units on receipt of creation instructions given under this Article, and must not, during an initial offer, create units otherwise.

4.03 Initial price

- 1 The price for each unit created during the period of the initial offer payable by the manager to the depositary shall be the initial price of that unit.
 - 2 For this purpose, ‘initial price’ means such amount as may be determined by the manager (or in the case of a company its directors), and notified to the depositary as being the amount, exclusive of the manager’s preliminary charge, if any, which may be paid by a potential unitholder to the manager for units on an initial offer.
 - 3 The amount which may be charged by the manager by way of preliminary charge shall comply with Article 8.02.
 - 4 A unit is treated as created during the period of the initial offer if the manager had agreed to the sale of it or received an order for it to be sold before the close of the offer, and it was created only afterwards.
 - 5 During the period of the initial offer, the manager shall not as agent agree to create units (as to which see Article 4.21 below) at a price which is other than the initial price to which may be added, for the account of the manager, any preliminary charge permitted under Article 8.02.
 - 6 The initial price of units shall be expressed in the currency of the class of units: but, during the period of the initial offer, a currency other than that currency may be used if the manager is satisfied that the rate of exchange between the two currencies is not likely to result in any material prejudice to the interests of unitholders or potential unitholders.
 - 7 Where the initial offer is made outside Jersey, there may be added to the initial price of units so offered an amount sufficient to cover additional duty or taxation leviable in that country and the cost of the remittance of money to Jersey.

4.04 Compulsory termination of initial offer

- 1 If the manager has reason to believe that if the current price of a unit were to be calculated by reference to a valuation taken forthwith, it would be likely to vary from the initial price of that unit by 2% or more of the initial price, the manager may carry out such a valuation.
- 2 If –
 - a. the manager carries out such a valuation and it shows a variation of 2% or more; or
 - b. the manager has reason to believe as mentioned in paragraph 1, but does not forthwith carry out a valuation for the purpose of that paragraph, then the period of the initial offer comes to an end and the manager must forthwith refrain from –
 - (i) agreeing to sell units at the initial price, and
 - (ii) arranging for the trustee or company to create units at the initial price except to fulfil an obligation to sell or an order for the purchase of units at that price which it has already assumed or received.

4.05 Creation of units: unitisation

- 1 This Article applies in the case of a unitisation, that is, arrangements for a newly formed pool under which –
 - a. the whole or part of the property of a body corporate (or a collective investment fund) becomes the first property of the pool; and
 - b. the holders of shares (or units) in the body corporate (or collective investment fund) being wound-up or property of which is being transferred become the first unitholders in the pool.
- 2 The trustee, or in the case of a company its directors with the agreement in writing of the depositary, alone shall have power, not dependent on an instruction by the manager, to determine to create units, having regard to the terms of any arrangements relating to the unitisation to which he or the company is a party; and in exercising the power conferred by this paragraph, any particular number of units may be created in exchange for assets other than money only if the depositary is satisfied that to do so is not likely to result in any material prejudice to the interests of unitholders or potential unitholders.
- 3 Upon such a determination, units shall be created in favour only of the holders of shares or units referred to in paragraph 1b.

SECTION B*Creation and cancellation4.06 Introduction

- 1 Articles 4.07-4.12 apply to creation and cancellation –
 - a. in an ongoing pool; and
 - b. where specifically stated, in relation to an initial offer and a unitisation.
- 2 In this Section, a ‘valuation point’ means the valuation point fixed by the manager under Article 4.28, whether on a periodic basis or for a particular valuation and where a valuation point falls outside normal business hours in Jersey, it shall be deemed (for the purposes of this Article and Articles 4.07.2 and 4.10) to be 9.00 am on the following business day; and a ‘notified point’ means a subsequent moment, within two hours of a valuation point, and arrived at under paragraph 3 below.
- 3 If the manager wishes regularly to have a notified point, he may notify the trustee or the company of his intention, indicating the period of time not exceeding two hours after the valuation point at which he wishes the notified point to occur; and any change in the period is ineffective unless agreed upon by the depositary.

4.07 Creation instructions

- 1 Where the manager wishes new units to be created, and complies with Article 4.10, he may give creation instructions which shall state the number to be created, expressed either as a number of units or as an amount in value (or as a combination of the two).
- 2 Where at any valuation point, the manager has any outstanding obligation to sell units, then he must give creation instructions, before –
 - a. two hours have elapsed since the valuation point; or
 - b. the next valuation point (if it is to occur within two hours of the last valuation point),to create units in such number at least as will enable the manager immediately to fulfil that obligation, (whether from the units so created or from other units owned by him immediately before the valuation point (or notified point if there is one)).

4.08 Creation of units

- 1 Subject to paragraph 2 and to Article 4.11 units must be created on receipt of and in accordance with creation instructions given by the manager under Article 4.07, and must not, after an initial offer, be created otherwise.
 - 2 The units may be created in exchange for assets other than money, but only –

- a. if the depositary is satisfied that acquisition of the assets in exchange for the number of units to be created is not likely to result in any material prejudice to the interests of unitholders or potential unitholders; and
 - b. in a case governed by Article 11.05 (amalgamation) or 11.06 (reconstruction) the depositary is satisfied that the resolution concerned in relation to the recognized fund of which he is depositary has been duly carried or else is not required.
- 3 On the creation of units, the manager shall, within the period specified in paragraph 4 –
 - a. pay the price of the units (if it remains unpaid) to the depositary in cash or in cleared funds; or
 - b. in the case of an exchange under paragraph 2, ensure transfer to the depositary of the assets to be taken in exchange.
 - 4 The period expires at the close of business on the fourth business day next after the relevant instructions were given by the manager.
 - 5 In a case within paragraph 2 (exchange) the manager must ensure that an enforceable right in the assets is created in favour of the depositary with effect from the creation of the units, even if the legal ownership is not then transferred.
 - 6 Paragraphs 2-5 above apply to an initial offer, but not to a unitisation.

4.09 Cancellation of units

- 1 Where the manager wishes units to be cancelled, and complies with Article 4.10, he may give cancellation instructions which shall state the number to be cancelled, expressed either as a number of units or as an amount in value (or as a combination of the two).
 - 2 Where, at any moment of giving cancellation instructions, the manager has any outstanding obligation to sell units, he may not give cancellation instructions if or to the extent that his so doing would prevent him immediately from fulfilling any such obligation which had been assumed before the valuation point (or notified point if there is one).
 - 3 Subject to Article 4.11 below units must be cancelled on receipt of cancellation instructions given by the manager, but subject to paragraph 8 may not be cancelled otherwise.
 - 4 Where cancellation instructions are given at a time which is less than two hours after the last valuation point, and there have been received but not yet executed cancellation instructions previously given under paragraph 3, the later cancellation instructions must enable both or all sets of instructions to be executed simultaneously.
 - 5 On the cancellation of units and on delivery to the depositary of such evidence of the title to those units as he may reasonably require, the depositary shall, within the period specified in paragraph 6, pay the price of the units to the unitholder or the manager as the case may be.

- 6 The period expires at the close of business on the fourth business day next after the cancellation of the units; but, where the manager has not ensured that the property of the pool includes or will include sufficient cash in the appropriate currency (or a sufficient facility to borrow without infringing any restriction in Part 5) within that period, the period is extended, for any relevant currency, until the shortage is rectified.
 - 7 Paragraph 5 does not apply where units are cancelled following a request for repurchase or cancellation of units by the unitholder, for property transferred or sold under Article 4.27.
 - 8 Nothing in this Article shall prevent or restrict the right of a pool to redeem all the units in issue on a date, or on the occurrence of any event specified in its constitutional documents, as the case may be, and in accordance with any provisions so specified.

4.10 Price of a unit

- 1 Subject to paragraphs 8 and 9, the constitutional documents may state that units are to be priced on a single price basis or that they are to be priced on a dual price basis. On the dual price basis a different valuation of the property of the pool is required to price a unit on creation to that required to price a unit on cancellation. Subject to paragraph 8, a change from one basis to the other in respect of any pool is permissible provided the constitutional documents permit such change in accordance with these Rules. The manager, or in the case of a company its directors may elect to make such change by notice given to the Commission in accordance with Article 2.10, and effect shall not be given thereto until the requirements of Article 2.10.3 have been satisfied and the proposed change and date of its implementation has been incorporated in a revised prospectus in accordance with Article 3.04 and 90 days have elapsed since the unitholders were notified in writing by the manager of the change to the prospectus and of the date when it is to come into effect.
 - 2 Subject to paragraph 4, the price of a unit of any class shall be calculated as follows –
 - a. take the proportion, attributable to the units of the class in question, of the value of the property of the pool in accordance with Section F (excluding the distribution account and the unclaimed payments account), calculated by reference to the most recent valuation of the property of the pool;
 - b. compute the number of units of the relevant class in issue immediately before the valuation in a;
 - c. divide the total at a. by the number of units at b;
 - d. express the result in the base currency or, when appropriate, the currency of designation of the class of units in question, or else comply with paragraph 3; and
 - e. express the price in a form that is accurate to at least four significant figures.
 - 3 A currency other than a currency referred to in 2d. above may be used if the manager is satisfied that the rate of exchange between the two

- currencies is not likely to result in any material prejudice to the interests of unitholders or potential unitholders.
- 4 A method of calculation other than that at paragraph 2 may be used as long as the manager is sure that it is bound to produce the same result.
 - 5 Where a creation or cancellation is made at a time which is less than two hours after the last valuation point and before the next valuation point, it must be made by reference to the price of the relevant class of units calculated (or being calculated) for the last valuation point.
 - 6 Any creation or cancellation to be made more than two hours after the last valuation point must be made by reference to the price of the relevant class of units next to be calculated and made only after the next valuation point has been reached.
 - 7 In the case of a money market fund, in determining the price at which units may be created, issued, cancelled, or repurchased the manager may take into account interest, original issue discount, and other receipts minus expenses and other outgoings that shall accrue between the relevant valuation point and the date on which settlement of the transaction is to take place in accordance with the constitutional documents provided that the policy of the manager shall be disclosed in the prospectus.
 - 8 The constituent parts of an umbrella fund must all be priced on either a dual or a single price basis.
 - 9 All pools shall, within three years following the coming into force of these Rules, operate on a single pricing basis.

4.11 Refusal to create or cancel units

- 1 Subject to paragraphs 2 and 3 –
 - a. on receipt by a company of creation instructions or cancellation instructions the company may forthwith give written notice to the manager stating that the company refuses to create or cancel, as the case may be, all or such number of the units requested to be created or cancelled as is specified in the notice; and
 - b. on receipt by the depositary of creation instructions or cancellation instructions the depositary may forthwith give written notice to the manager stating that the depositary refuses to create or cancel, as the case may be, all or such number of the units requested to be created or cancelled as is specified in the notice,and the consequence of the giving of either such notice shall be that the number of units shall not be created or cancelled.
 - 2 Neither a company nor the depositary may give such notice in relation to the creation of units for the purposes of a unitisation and, in any other case may give it only if –
 - a. in a case where the company proposes to give such notice, the directors are of the opinion; or

- b. in a case where the depositary proposes to give such notice, it is of the opinion, that it is not in the interests of participants for the units the subject of the notice to be created or cancelled as the case may be.

 - 3 A company or trustee shall not create or cancel units of any class, and the depositary shall not consent to their creation or cancellation, during any period in which repurchase of units of that class is suspended.
 - 4 This Article also applies to an initial offer.

4.12 Modification to number of units created or cancelled

- 1 After a creation instruction or cancellation instruction has been complied with, it may be modified, and appropriate consequential adjustments may be made by way of payment of money as between the manager and the depositary, provided that the requirements of this Article are satisfied.
- 2 The manager may make a modification under this Article only with the agreement of the depositary; and the depositary may not agree unless it is reasonably satisfied –
 - a. that the purpose of the modification is to rectify the consequences of an error in the instruction which related to the number of units held by, or proposed to be created or cancelled in connection with the sale or repurchase of units to or by, the manager; and
 - b. that, in view of the quality of the manager's control systems, the circumstance that resulted in the error in question is an isolated one, and is unlikely to recur.
- 3 A modification under this Article shall be of no effect unless the consequential adjustments are completed by the end of the business day next following the relevant valuation point, or, if the depositary agrees, within the payment period applicable to the original instruction under Article 4.08.3 or 4.09.5.

SECTION C

Sale and Repurchase

4.13 Introduction

- 1 Articles 4.14 to 4.25 apply to sale and repurchases –
 - a. in an ongoing pool; and
 - b. where specifically stated, in relation to an initial offer and a unitisation.
 - 2 Those Articles also apply in similar manner to creations and cancellations of units effected or to be effected by the trustee or company acting through the manager as agent.

- 3 A currency other than the base currency may be used if the manager is satisfied that the rate of exchange between the two currencies is not likely to result in any material prejudice to the interests of unitholders or potential unitholders.

4.14 Manager's obligation to sell

- 1 Subject to the pool having units in issue, the manager must at all times during the dealing day be willing to sell units in the pool; and he must, at the request in writing of any person, agree to sell units of at least one class in respect of that pool to that person at a price arrived at under these Rules.
- 2 Paragraph 1 above does not apply –
 - a. if the manager has reasonable grounds, relating to the circumstances of the person concerned, for refusing to sell units to him;
 - b. if the number or value of the units sought to be sold is less than any number or value stated in the prospectus as the minimum number or value to be purchased or held, or
 - c. (in the case of a property fund) if the manager believes on reasonable grounds that the number or value of units sought to be sold would lead to the holding by any one person (or by any one person and any other person appearing to the manager to be acting in concert with that person) of more units than any number stated in the prospectus as the maximum number to be purchased or held.
- 3 Units must be sold in the base currency, unless the person concerned requests and the manager agrees that the units should be sold in another currency.
- 4 This Article applies during an initial offer, but not during a unitisation.
- 5 This Article is subject to Part 13 (Suspension and termination).

4.15 Sale price parameters: dual pricing basis

- 1 In the case of a pool in relation to which the dual pricing basis has been adopted, except in the case of a large deal, the manager's price for sale of units shall not exceed the maximum sale price, that is a price fixed by the manager and notified (or, for a sale at a forward price, next to be notified) to the depositary; and that maximum sale price itself must not exceed the total of –
 - a. the relevant creation price; and
 - b. the current preliminary charge.
- 2 In the case of an initial offer, the manager's price for sale of units shall not exceed the sum of the initial price and any preliminary charge permitted under Article 8.02.

- 3 In the case of a large deal, the manager's price for sale may exceed the maximum sale price but must not exceed the limit above which the maximum sale price could not have been fixed.
 - 4 The manager's price for sale shall not be less than the minimum repurchase price under Article 4.19.1.
 - 5 In applying this Article to dealings after a valuation point but before the price relating to that point has been fixed and notified, the maximum sale price will be the one next to be notified in respect of that point, or, where relevant, the next point.

4.16 Sale price parameters: single pricing basis

- 1 In the case of a pool in relation to which the single pricing basis has been adopted the manager's price for sale of units shall not exceed the price fixed by the manager and notified (or, for an issue at a forward price, next to be notified) to the depositary to which may be added –
 - a. any preliminary charge permitted under Article 8.02; and
 - b. any dilution levy permitted under Article 4.25.

4.17 Manager's obligation to repurchase

- 1 Subject to Article 4.27 the manager must at all times during the dealing day be willing to repurchase units in the pool; and, accordingly, must at the request in writing of any unitholder agree to repurchase units owned by that unitholder at a price arrived at under these Rules.
 - 2 Paragraph 1 above does not apply –
 - a. if the number or value of the units sought to be repurchased is –
 - (i) less than the entirety of the unitholder's holding, and
 - (ii) less than any number or value stated in the prospectus as the minimum number to be repurchased; or
 - b. if the number or value of the units of any class sought to be repurchased would result in the unitholder holding less than any number or value stated in the prospectus as the minimum number to be held of the relevant class; or
 - c. if the manager ensures that the unitholder is able to sell his units on an investment exchange at a price not significantly different from the price at which they would have been repurchased; or
 - d. to the extent that the power to refuse in paragraph 3 applies; or
 - e. in the case of an initial offer or unitisation.
 - 3 Units must be repurchased in the base currency or, at the request of the unitholder, in any other currency which is acceptable to the manager.
 - 4 This Article is subject to Part 13 (Suspension and termination).

4.18 Payment on repurchase

- 1 On agreeing to repurchase units, the manager shall, within the period specified in paragraph 2 pay the appropriate proceeds of repurchase (less, where applicable, the cost of remitting the sum outside Jersey) to the unitholder.
- 2 The period expires at the close of business on the fourth business day next after –
 - a. the valuation point immediately following receipt by the manager of the request to repurchase; or
 - b. the time when the manager has all duly executed instruments and authorisations as effect (or enable the manager to effect) transfer of title to the units,whichever is the later.
- 3 This Article does not apply where the manager is not repurchasing units in the usual sense but is buying them as principal on an approved market in accordance with a power in the constitutional documents, which envisages that settlement will be in accordance with the rules of that market.
- 4 Nothing in this Article shall require a manager to part with money in respect of a repurchase of units where he has not yet received the money due on the earlier sale of those units, or where he considers it necessary or appropriate to carry out or complete identification procedures in relation to the unitholder or another person pursuant to a statutory, regulatory or other obligation.
- 5 There may be deducted from what would otherwise be the proceeds of repurchase of a unit any repurchase charge permitted under Article 8.07.

4.19 Repurchase price parameters: dual pricing basis

- 1 In the case of a pool in relation to which the dual pricing basis has been adopted, except in the case of a large deal, the manager's price for repurchase of units shall not be less than the relevant minimum repurchase price already notified (or, for a repurchase at a forward price, next to be notified) to the depositary.
- 2 The minimum repurchase price shall not be less than the relevant cancellation price.
- 3 In the case of a large deal, the manager's price for repurchase may be less than the minimum repurchase price but must not be less than the relevant cancellation price.
- 4 In the case of an umbrella fund, except in the case of a large deal and then in accordance with Article 4.15.3, the maximum price at which units in one constituent part may be had in exchange for units in another such part shall not exceed the relevant maximum sale price (less any preliminary charge) of the new units; and the minimum price at which the old units may be taken in exchange shall not be less than the equivalent minimum repurchase price except in the case of a large deal and then in accordance with Article 4.19.3. Any charge on exchange of units shall be in accordance with Article 8.08.

- 5 The manager's price for repurchase of units shall not exceed the relevant creation price under Article 4.15.1a.
- 6 In applying this Article to dealings after a valuation point but before the price relating to that point has been notified, the minimum repurchase price will be the one next to be notified in respect of that point, or where relevant, the next point.

4.20 Repurchase price parameters: single price basis

- 1 In the case of a pool in relation to which the single pricing basis has been adopted the amount to be paid by the manager as the proceeds of repurchase of a unit shall not be less than the price fixed by the manager and notified (or, for a repurchase at a forward price, next to be notified) to the depositary less –
 - a. any repurchase charge permitted under Article 8.07; and
 - b. any dilution levy permitted under Article 4.25.
- 2 In the case of an umbrella fund, the maximum price at which units in one constituent part may be had in exchange for units in another such part shall not exceed the relevant sale price of the new units as required to be notified to the depositary under Article 4.16.1 to which may be added any dilution levy permitted under Article 4.25; and the minimum price at which the old units may be taken in exchange shall not be less than the price required to be notified to the depositary under this Article less any dilution levy permitted under Article 4.25. Any charge on exchange of units shall be in accordance with Article 8.08.

4.21 Creation and cancellation through the manager when not acting as principal

- 1 This Article applies where the trustee or company has appointed the manager (with the manager's consent) to act as its agent in connection with the creation or cancellation by the trustee or the company of units, either generally or in relation to any particular person or class of persons.
- 2 At the request of any person to whom the appointment relates, the manager is obliged to arrange for units to be created under this Article in any case where he is obliged to sell them under Article 4.14.
- 3 At the request of any person to whom the appointment relates, the manager is obliged to arrange for units to be cancelled under this Article in any case where he is obliged to repurchase them under Article 4.17.
- 4 The amount to be paid for a unit must be the total of –
 - a. the price next to be notified to the depositary;
 - b. for the account of the trustee or the company, any dilution levy permitted under Article 4.25; and

- c. if the manager wishes and if not already incorporated in a. above, a preliminary charge not exceeding the current charge permitted under Article 8.02.
- 5 The amount to be paid on cancellation must be the total of –
 - a. the price next to be notified to the depositary;
 - b. less, for the account of the trustee or the company, any dilution levy permitted under Article 4.25; and
 - c. less any charge for the manager’s benefit if and to the extent that he would have been entitled to make such a deduction on repurchasing the units in question in accordance with Article 8.07.
- 6 The manager shall not make any charge in connection with the creation or cancellation of units under this Article which is not contemplated by this Article.
- 7 Where the manager, for the trustee or company, has agreed with a unitholder to arrange the creation or cancellation of any units, he must, at the start of the next business day, supply a report of his transactions to the trustee or depositary and company, who shall then treat that report as if it were creation instructions or cancellation instructions.
- 8 Where the manager has agreed to arrange the cancellation of units for the trustee or company, the manager shall pay the purchase price as if Article 4.18 applied to the transaction, and as if the units to be cancelled following the purchase by the trustee or company were being transferred to the manager.

4.22 Notification of prices to the depositary

- 1 Forthwith upon completion of a valuation under Section F (whether regular or otherwise) the manager shall notify the depositary of –
 - a. in relation to a pool which is priced on a single pricing basis the price of a unit or unit of each class (as the case may be) and the amount or rate of any dilution levy applicable in respect of any creation, sale, repurchase or cancellation of units; and
 - b. in relation to a pool which is priced on a dual pricing basis –
 - (i) the creation price,
 - (ii) the cancellation price,
 - (iii) the maximum sale price, and
 - (iv) the minimum repurchase price.
- 2 The prices to be notified under paragraph 1 are those relevant to deals based on prices determined at that valuation point.
- 3 Any notification under paragraph 1 shall include a statement of the number of units owned by the manager at that valuation point (or notified point if there is one).

4.23 Publication of prices

- 1 This Article applies unless the manager is excused from dealing with the public under these Rules.
- 2 Where the manager holds himself out as willing –
 - a. to sell or repurchase units (or units of any class); or
 - b. to act as agent under Article 4.21,he must make public the prices of units of each of those classes including, in the case of a pool which has adopted a dual pricing basis, maximum sale and minimum repurchase prices and must make public the current preliminary charge, if any.
- 3 The prices to be made public under paragraph 2 are to be the price or prices last notified to the depositary under Article 4.22 or, in the case of publication in a newspaper, last notified before the relevant newspaper ceased to accept material for publication in the relevant edition.
- 4 Where the manager is authorised to make a charge by way of deduction from the proceeds of repurchase, he must include in any publication required by paragraph 2 a note to indicate that fact.
- 5 Except in respect of any class of units that is marketed predominantly outside of the United Kingdom the prices to be made public under paragraph 2 above must be published in at least one national newspaper in the United Kingdom.
- 6 Where the manager holds himself out as willing to sell and repurchase units (or as the case may be to act as agent under Article 4.21) in any other jurisdiction, he must also comply with paragraph 2 above in that jurisdiction in the manner provided for in the law of that jurisdiction.
- 7 The manager shall disclose the cancellation price, orally or in writing, to any person who requests it in person at, or by any communication addressed to, the manager's principal place of business, and the manager must have arrangements to enable him accordingly to disclose, free of charge, at all times during the dealing day, the price last notified to the depositary.

4.24 Instructions etc. by manager

- 1 Any instruction or notification given (or report supplied), including the creation instructions and the cancellation instructions, under this Part by the manager to the depositary or company –
 - a. must be recorded by the manager, at the time when it is given or supplied;
 - b. must be sent in a form which enables the recipient to know or record the time of receipt; and
 - c. may be communicated in any form other than by word of mouth.
- 2 Instructions are given to the recipient within any period under this Part if they are received within that period, and instructions received after the expiry of any period are treated as given after that expiry.

- 3 This Article also applies, with the necessary modifications, to any notice or notification given by the depositary or the company to the manager.

4.25 Dilution levy

- 1 In relation to a pool which has adopted a single pricing basis the manager shall have the power to require either or both of –
- a. the payment of a dilution levy in respect of the creation or sale of units or any class of units; and
 - b. the deduction of a dilution levy in respect of the repurchase or the cancellation of units or any class of units.
- 2 Any such payment or deduction shall become due at the same time as payment becomes due in respect of the relevant creation, sale, repurchase or cancellation.
- 3 A dilution levy may be imposed only in a manner that is, so far as practicable, fair to all unitholders and potential unitholders, but the imposition of a dilution levy (or a higher dilution levy) in respect of large deals in a manner described in the prospectus current at the time of the deal shall not be considered unfair.
- 4 If the manager receives a dilution levy in respect of any unit sold by it, it shall forthwith pay it to the depositary to become part of the property of the pool, except to the extent that it has already been paid by the manager to the depositary on the creation of the unit to the manager.
- 5 If the manager deducts a dilution levy from the proceeds of repurchase of a unit repurchased by it, it shall forthwith pay it to the depositary to become part of the property of the pool, but if the same unit shall be cancelled, any dilution levy that would otherwise then be deducted from the proceeds of cancellation shall be reduced to the extent that it has already been paid by the manager to the depositary on the repurchase.

SECTION D

Forward and historic pricing

4.26 Introduction

- 1 In relation to the sale and repurchase of units, the manager may, subject to this Article, operate on the basis of forward prices or on the basis of historic prices, and his power to choose, or his duty to operate on one basis only, is conditioned by Table 4.1 below.
- 2 Paragraph 1 is disappplied in relation to certain categories of pool (geared futures and options funds, property funds and warrant funds) later in these Rules.

Table 4.1 - Forward or Historic Pricing

RULESNotes

- 1 In this table 'F Only' means that any price agreed upon must be a forward price; 'H' means that any price agreed upon must be a historic price unless the manager is required by the Table to deal at a forward price. 'General' means 'in relation to all sales and repurchases agreed upon during the remainder of the relevant dealing period (except those that are agreed upon individual deviations)'; and an 'individual deviation' is a decision, in relation to a particular transaction, covered by the rules in Section 3 of the Table.
- 2 This table does not apply to an initial offer or on unitisation.

Section 1 General

- 1 Manager's choice. The manager must express in the prospectus a choice for H or else for F Only.
- 2 If the manager's current choice under 1 is F Only, all his deals must be at a forward price.
- 3 A manager may not choose H if his normal arrangements for valuation envisage valuation more than one business day apart.
- 4 The remainder of this table applies to a manager with a current choice of H.
- 5 He may at any time elect for F Only in respect of the rest of the then current dealing period.
- 6 He may bind himself, in the prospectus, to switch from H to F Only at a certain point in each dealing period.
- 7 An election for (or switch to) F Only will last until the end of the dealing period and will then lapse.
- 8 For general purposes, repurchases must be on the same basis as sales.

Section 2 General duty to adopt forward pricing

- 9 Market movement. F Only applies once the manager knows or has reason to believe that the property of the pool, if valued under these Rules, would exceed the 2% tolerance (that is if there would be a 2% or greater difference between the value of the property of the pool and the last calculated value (taking that as 100% for this purpose)), but decides not to carry out an additional valuation under Article 4.28.
- 10 Valuation taking over 2 hours. F Only applies if new prices have not been notified to the depositary after 2 hours (or such longer period as the depositary may agree with the manager generally or in any specific case) from the valuation point.

- 11 Rule 10 does not apply if, within two hours of the valuation point, the manager has notified the depository of the basis (creation or cancellation) on which the next prices will be fixed, and of the spread (reckoned in percentage or money terms) between the maximum sale price and the minimum repurchase price.
- 12 F Only under rules 9 and 10 will start when the relevant moment arrives, will last until the end of the dealing period and will then lapse.

Section 3 Individual deviations

- 13 Rules 14 to 17 apply in relation to an individual transaction without affecting the general position arrived at under Sections 1 and 2 above.
- 14 Request. F Only applies if the applicant for sale or repurchase so requests.
- 15 Large deals. F Only applies, if the manager so decides, in the case of a large deal (or the later transactions which are part of a large deal).
- 16 Postal deals. F Only applies if the order or offer reaches the manager through the post or any other form of one-way communication (fax etc.).
- 17 Creation or cancellation through the manager when not acting as principal. F Only applies in the case of a sale or purchase under Article 4.21.

Section 4 Notification

- 18 The manager must notify the depository, and in the case of a company the company, of the fact and time of any adoption of F Only under rule 5 or Section 2.

SECTION E

'In specie' cancellation

4.27 In specie cancellation

- 1 If a unitholder requests the repurchase or cancellation of units the manager may arrange that in lieu of payment of the price for the units in cash the trustee or company shall cancel the units and transfer property of the pool or, if required by the unitholder, the net proceeds of sale of the relevant property of the pool to him, provided that –
 - a. the prospectus contains a statement describing the circumstances in which the manager is permitted to arrange for, and describing the procedures for, a cancellation of units in the manner described above;
 - b. the manager gives written notice to the unitholder before the proceeds of cancellation would otherwise become payable in cash,

- that in lieu of such payment it will arrange that the depositary will transfer property of the pool (or the net proceeds of the sale of the relevant property of the pool) to the unitholder; and
- c. the property of the pool to be transferred (or sold) is selected by the manager, in consultation with the trustee or with the company and the depositary, and the selection is made with a view to achieving no more advantage or disadvantage to the unitholder requesting cancellation of his units than to the continuing unitholders.
- 2 Notwithstanding paragraph 1, the manager shall not, when acting as a principal, cancel units other than for payment in cash.

SECTION F

Valuation

4.28 Valuation of the property of the recognized fund

- 1 Regular Valuation. For the purposes of determining in accordance with these Rules the price at which units of any class in a pool may be created, cancelled, sold or repurchased, the manager shall carry out a valuation of the property of the pool at each valuation point for the pool.
- 2 An investment included in the property of the pool for which different prices are quoted according to whether it is being bought or sold shall, in the case of a pool which has adopted a single price basis, be valued at its mid-market price and, in the case of a pool which has adopted a dual price basis, shall be valued in two parts, one being at its offered or buying price (plus any fiscal charges or commissions or other charges that were paid or would be payable on the acquisition of the investment or other part of the property of the pool) and the other being at its bid or selling price (less any fiscal charges or commissions or other charges that were paid or would be payable on the disposal of the investment or other part of the property of the pool).
- 3 Any part of the property of the pool which is not an investment shall be valued at a fair value.
- 4 For the purposes of the preceding paragraphs, in the case of a pool which has adopted a single price basis there shall be excluded from the value of an investment or other part of the property of the pool any fiscal charges or commissions or other charges that were paid or would be payable on the acquisition or disposal of the investment or other part of the property of the pool.
- 5 There must be at least two valuation points in each calendar month and if there are only two valuation points in any calendar month they must be two weeks or more apart.
- 6 Paragraph 5 does not apply to a warrant fund and there must be at least one valuation point for them on each business day.
- 7 The frequency of regular valuation points shall be specified in the prospectus.

- 8 Notwithstanding paragraphs 5, 6 and 7, no valuation points are required during the period of any initial offer (but see Article 4.04).
- 9 Additional Valuation. The manager may determine to have an additional valuation point and to carry out an additional valuation of the property of the pool at any time if it considers it desirable to do so.
- 10 Prior to any additional valuation point the manager shall inform the depositary of it.
- 11 Additional or special requirements. Part 12 provides additional or special requirements relating to the valuation of fund property for certain categories of recognized fund.

INVESTMENT AND BORROWING POWERS

5.01 Introduction

Each of Sections B to J below applies only to recognized funds or pools of the kind mentioned in the title to the relevant Section.

SECTION A

*GENERAL5.02 Investment powers: general

- 1 Subject to this Part, the property of a pool may comprise any property the holding of which is consistent with the relevant dedication in Article 2.05 and in addition the property of a recognized fund may include movable or immovable property that is necessary for the direct pursuit of the recognized fund's business of investing in the first mentioned property.
- 2 The property of a pool may be invested only in accordance with this Part and within any relevant upper limit (such as 'up to 10%') in this Part.
- 3 The constitutional documents may restrict –
 - a. the descriptions of asset in which the property of the pool may be invested; or
 - b. the proportion of the capital property attributable to the pool to be invested in assets of any description; or
 - c. the descriptions of transactions permitted; or
 - d. the borrowing powers in relation to the pool,and any such restrictions shall be observed as if they were included in this Part.
- 4 Restrictions from time to time included in a prospectus pursuant to paragraph 9 of Schedule 2 (and Article 11.04) shall be observed as if they were included in this Part.

5.03 Valuation

- 1 For the purpose of this Part, the value of the property of the pool means the net asset value, that is the net value of the property of the pool after deducting –
 - a. any outstanding borrowings whether immediately due to be repaid or not; and
 - b. in the case of a property fund, any capital sum outstanding on a hypothec or mortgage of an immovable.

- 2 Subject to paragraphs 3 and 4, Section F of Part 4 (Valuation) shall apply to any valuation of the property of the pool for the purposes of this Part.
 - 3 In applying Part 4 for the purposes of this Part –
 - a. the cancellation basis only is required in the case of a pool which is valued on a dual price basis and in the case of a pool which is valued on a mid-market price basis, that basis shall apply;
 - b. the time as at which the valuation is being carried out for the purposes of this Part ('the relevant time') is treated as if it were a valuation point; and
 - c. valuation solely for the purposes of this Part does not count as a valuation under Part 4, nor does the relevant time at b. of itself count as a valuation point for the purposes of anything in Part 4.
 - 4 Part 4 may be affected by specific provisions in this Part, such as valuation of permitted immovables or Article 5.61 (stocklending).
 - 5 Where a pool has paid any sum by way of initial outlay under Section D, E or K, the initial outlay is regarded as remaining part of the property of the pool, for the purposes of this Part only, even if it is not so regarded under Part 4.
 - 6 Where the manager reasonably believes that the pool will become entitled to any unrealised profits which have been made on account of a derivatives transaction, that prospective entitlement is regarded as part of the property of the pool for the purposes of this Part only.

5.04 Part to be construed as a whole

- 1 In relation to any provision in this Part, whereby investment is permitted to be carried out or retained only if possible obligations arising out of the transaction would not cause any breach of any limit in these Rules (examples being Articles 5.15.1 (warrants), 5.15.2 (nil or partly paid securities) and 5.67.5 (underwriting)) it is to be assumed –
 - a. in applying any of those provisions, that the maximum possible liability of the pool under any other such provision has also to be provided for; but
 - b. in relation to the value of the property of the pool itself, that any relevant investment included in that property is valued in accordance with Part 4.
- 2 In relation to any provision in this Part, whereby investment is permitted to be carried out or retained under one Section if the transaction in question and other similar transactions are 'covered', it is to be assumed –
 - a. in applying any of those provisions, that the pool must also simultaneously satisfy any other obligation relating to cover arising under another Section; and
 - b. that no element of cover is used more than once.

5.05 Transferable security

- 1 In these Rules, 'transferable security' means any investment falling within any of paragraphs 1 to 6 of Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Act, unless paragraph 2 or 4 below applies.
- 2 An investment is not a transferable security if the title to it cannot be transferred, or can be transferred only with the consent of a third party.
- 3 In applying paragraph 2, where a security is issued by a body corporate and is an investment falling within paragraph 1 or 2 of Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Act, the need for any consent on the part of the body or any members or debenture holders of it may be ignored.
- 4 A security is not a transferable security if the liability of the holder of it to contribute to the debts of the issuer is not limited to any amount for the time being unpaid by the holder of it in respect of it.

5.06 Approved security

- 1 A transferable security is an 'approved security' if –
 - a. it is admitted to official listing in a member state; or
 - b. it is traded on or under the rules of an eligible securities market (otherwise than by virtue of the specific permission of the market authority); or
 - c. it is recently issued within the meaning of paragraph 2.
- 2 A transferable security is recently issued if –
 - a. it was issued, within the last twelve months, on terms that an application for listing would be made to an exchange or market;
 - b. the application at a. has not been refused;
 - c. the manager is not aware of any reason why the application might be refused; and
 - d. acceptance of the application at a. would bring the security within paragraph 1a. or b. above.

5.07 Warrants

In these Rules, 'warrants' includes, in addition to an investment falling within paragraph 4 of Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Act, any other transferable security (not being a nil paid or partly paid security) which is –

- a. listed on an eligible securities market; and
- b. akin to an investment within that paragraph in that it involves a down payment by the then holder and a right later to surrender the instrument and to pay more money in return for a further transferable security.

5.08 Derivative and approved derivative

- 1 In these Rules 'derivative' means an option, or a future or a contract for differences.

- 2 In these Rules, 'approved derivative' means a derivative which is traded or dealt in on an eligible derivatives market.
- 3 Off-exchange derivatives transactions are defined later, in Article 5.23.
- 4 An investment is not a derivative if it is a transferable security.

5.09 Eligible securities and derivatives markets

- 1 A securities market is eligible for the purposes of these Rules, if it is a market established in a member state on which transferable securities admitted to official listing in the member state are dealt in or traded.
- 2 A securities market not falling within paragraph 1 or a derivatives market is, at any time, eligible for the purposes of these Rules if –
 - a. the manager or directors, after consultation with the depositary, have decided, in accordance with paragraphs 3 and 4, to choose that market as one which is appropriate for the purpose of investment of or dealing in the property of the pool beyond, where appropriate, any limit which under these Rules, would otherwise apply;
 - b. that decision is notified in writing to the depositary and has not been revoked; and
 - c. the market is included in a list in the prospectus.
- 3 For the purposes of paragraph 2, a market may be considered to be appropriate if it –
 - a. is regulated;
 - b. operates regularly;
 - c. is recognized; and
 - d. is open to the public.
- 4 In exercising the choice in paragraph 2, regard shall in particular be had –
 - a. to the need for adequate liquidity in the market;
 - b. to the arrangements relevant to the market for unimpeded transmission of income and capital to or to the order of investors; and
 - c. to any relevant guidance issued by the Commission, whenever issued.

5.10 Permitted immovable and approved immovable

These concepts, relevant only to Section F (property funds) below, are defined in that Section.

SECTION B*SECURITIES FUNDS5.11 Securities funds: general

- 1 Subject to this Section, to Sections A (general) and K (efficient portfolio management) and to the subsequent Sections of this Part, the property of the pool of a securities fund shall consist of transferable securities.
- 2 Up to 10% in value of the property of the pool may consist of transferable securities which are not approved securities, but there is no limit on the value of the property which may consist of approved securities.
- 3 Up to 5% in value of the property of the pool may consist of transferable securities which are units in collective investment funds but only if they fall within Article 5.14 below.
- 4 Investment under paragraph 3 counts towards the limit in paragraph 2 (except where the units are approved securities).
- 5 Articles 5.12 and 5.13 (spread) do not apply until –
 - a. the expiry of a period of 6 months after the date on which the pool is authorised (or on which the initial offer commenced if later); or
 - b. the date when the value of the property of the pool first exceeds £1,000,000 (or the equivalent in the base currency) (or on which the initial offer ends, if later), whichever is the earlier, but the manager and the trustee or the directors shall ensure, so far as practicable, during that period that the pool is invested with the aim of spreading risk.

5.12 Spread: general

- 1 This Article does not apply to Government and other public securities as defined in Article 5.13.5.
- 2 Up to 5% in value of the property of the pool may consist of transferable securities issued by any one issuer.
- 3 In applying paragraph 2, investments within paragraph 5 of Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Act (certificates representing securities) are treated as equivalent to the underlying security.
- 4 The figure of 5% in paragraph 2 may be regarded as 10% in respect of up to 40% of the value of the property of the pool.

5.13 Spread: Government and other public securities

- 1 This Article applies to Government and other public securities only and in this Article they are described as 'such securities'.

- 2 As long as 35% or less of the property of the pool is invested in such securities issued by any one issuer, there is no limit on the amount which may be invested in –
 - a. such securities; or
 - b. such securities issued by any one issuer or of any one issue.
 - 3 Where, however, the property of the pool is invested as to more than 35% in such securities issued by any one issuer, then –
 - a. up to 30% of the property of the pool may consist of such securities of any one issue;
 - b. the property of the pool must include such securities issued by that or another issuer of at least six different issues; and
 - c. the disclosures in paragraph 4 must have been duly made.
 - 4 Where it is intended or anticipated that paragraph 3 may apply, the constitutional documents, and the most recently published prospectus, must clearly state –
 - a. the fact that more than 35% of the property of the pool is or may be invested in Government and other public securities issued by one issuer; and
 - b. the identity of the issuer.
 - 5 In these Rules, ‘Government and other public securities’ means transferable securities which are investments falling within paragraph 3 of Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Act which are issued by or on behalf of –
 - a. the Government of the United Kingdom, of Northern Ireland, or of a member state other than the United Kingdom;
 - b. a local authority in the United Kingdom or in any other member state;
 - c. the Government of any of the countries listed in paragraph 6; or

 - 6 The countries relevant for paragraph 5c. above are –
 - a. Australia;
 - b. Canada;
 - c. Japan;
 - d. New Zealand;

5.14 Investment in collective investment funds

- 1 A securities fund may invest in units in a collective investment fund only if the second fund –
 - a. is either –
 - (i) a recognized fund, or

 - (ii) have the effect that the only units in which the collective investment fund may invest are units in collective investment funds themselves falling within this Article.
- 2 In relation to investment under this Article into a constituent part, or its equivalent, of a collective investment fund which is an umbrella fund, that constituent part, or its equivalent, shall be treated as a separate collective investment fund and such constituent part, or its equivalent, must meet all of the requirements of paragraph 1.

5.15 Investment in warrants and in nil paid or partly paid securities

- 1 A warrant falls within any power of investment only if it is reasonably foreseeable that the right to subscribe conferred by the warrant could be exercised by the pool without contravening these Rules.
 - 2 A transferable security on which any sum is unpaid falls within any power of investment only if it is reasonably foreseeable that the amount of any existing and potential call for any sum unpaid could be paid by the pool, at the time when payment is required, without contravening these Rules.

- 3 Up to 5% of the value of the property of the pool may consist of warrants; but there is no similar limit in respect of securities on which any sum is unpaid.
 - 4 A warrant, as defined in Article 5.07, which is an investment falling within paragraph 5 of Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Act which is akin to an investment falling within paragraph 4 of that Schedule may not be included in the property of the pool unless it is listed on an eligible securities market.

5.16 Significant influence

- 1 A recognized fund may only acquire transferable securities issued by a body corporate carrying rights to vote at a general meeting of that body if –
 - a. immediately before the acquisition the aggregate number of any such securities of that body held by the recognized fund does not give the recognized fund power significantly to influence the conduct of business of that body; and
 - b. the acquisition will not give the recognized fund that power.
- 2 For the purpose of paragraph 1 a recognized fund shall be taken to have power significantly to influence the conduct of business of a body corporate if it can, by virtue of the transferable securities held by it, exercise or control the exercise of 20% or more of the votes cast at a general meeting of that body (disregarding for this purpose any temporary suspension of voting rights in respect of the securities of that body).
- 3 A recognized fund must not hold –
 - a. transferable securities which do not carry rights to vote at a general meeting of the body corporate that issued them and represent more than 10% of the issued share capital of that body corporate; or
 - b. more than 10% of the units of a collective investment fund.

5.17 Investment in collective investment funds managed by manager etc.

Units in a collective investment fund do not fall within Article 5.14 if the collective investment fund is managed or operated by the manager or an associate of the manager of the investing fund, unless –

- a. the instrument constituting the collective investment fund states that its investment will be restricted to a particular geographic area or economic sector or other specific investment objective;
- b. the constitutional documents of the investing recognized fund and its prospectus clearly state that the property of the pool may include such units; and
- c. Article 5.70 (investment in other group collective investment funds) is complied with.

 - (iii) either approved securities within Article 5.06.1a. or 5.06.1b. above (on-exchange), or else are issued by an eligible institution otherwise than in return for a deposit in a. above; and
 - d. a deposit which would be within a. above (near cash) except that it is repayable within six months (instead of immediately and without payment of a penalty exceeding seven day's interest calculated at ordinary commercial rates);
 - e. units in one or more regulated collective investment funds or a constituent part, or its equivalent, thereof each of which is either a money market fund or which is of a category that is equivalent to a money market fund.
- 3 Article 5.20 (spread) does not apply until –
 - a. the expiry of a period of 6 months after the date on which the money market fund is authorised (or on which the initial offer commenced if later); or
 - b. the date when the value of the property of the pool first exceeds £1,000,000 (or the equivalent in the base currency of the money market fund) (or on which the initial offer ends, if later),whichever is the earlier, but the manager and the trustee or the directors shall ensure, so far as practicable, during that period that the pool is invested with the aim of spreading risk.

5.19 Investment limits

- 1 This Article is subject to Article 5.18.
 - 2 At least 35% in value of the property of the pool must consist of instruments or deposits which are –

- 1 Up to 5% in value of the property of the pool may consist of instruments issued by any one issuer; but this limit does not apply to instruments which are Government and other public securities.
- 2 Article 5.13 shall apply to Government and other public securities.
- 3 Up to 10% in value of the property of the pool may be kept on deposit with any one person.
- 4 For the purposes of paragraph 3, the depositary and its associates are regarded as one person, and the manager and its associates as another.

5.21 Other provisions

The following Articles apply to money market funds –

- a. 5.15.2 (investment in nil paid or partly paid securities);
- b. 5.16 (significant influence).

 - 3 In respect of investment within paragraph 1b. or c., a derivatives or forward transaction may be effected under this Section only if –
 - a. the transaction is of the kind specified in Article 5.23 (permitted transactions); and
 - b. the transaction is fully covered, as required by Article 5.25 (cover for derivatives and forward transactions), or else the subject of deposit arrangements, as required by Article 5.27.
 - 4 Up to 10% in value of the property of the pool may be used for derivatives transactions in the form of uncovered purchased options (taking the current market value of the option as its value for this purpose), but the manager must deduct from that figure of 10% any percentage of the value of the property of the pool invested in transferable securities in the form of warrants.
 - 5 Up to 10% in value of the property of the pool may be held in the form of gold.
 - 6 Spread. Up to 10% in value of the property of the pool may be kept as cash on deposit with any one person.
 - 7 For the purposes of paragraph 6, the depositary and his associates are regarded as one person, and the manager and his associates as another.

the deposits of all pools of the recognized fund do not exceed 10% of that person's issued capital and reserves as shown in its most recently published annual accounts.

- 9 Paragraphs 6, 7 and 8 do not apply to a futures and options fund with respect to any deposit which is less than £1,000,000 (or the equivalent amount in the base currency).

5.23 Permitted transactions (derivatives and forwards)

- 1 A derivatives transaction under this Section must be –
- a. in an approved derivative (as defined in Article 5.08.2); or
 - b. one which complies with paragraphs 5 to 8 (off- exchange); or
 - c. a 'synthetic future' which complies with paragraphs 9 and 10.
- 2 Any transaction in an approved derivative must be effected on or under the rules of an eligible derivatives market.
- 3 Any forward transaction must be with an approved counterparty which is within paragraph 6 (eligible institutions, listed money market institutions, etc.).
- 4 No more than 5% of the value of the property of the pool may be directed to initial outlay in respect of off-exchange transactions with any one counterparty.
- 5 Off-exchange. Any derivatives transaction under paragraph 1.b. must be –
- a. a future or an option or a contract for differences resembling an option;
 - b. with an approved counterparty under paragraph 6;
 - c. on approved terms under paragraph 7; and
 - d. capable of valuation under paragraph 8.
- 6 A counterparty to a derivatives transaction is approved for the purposes of paragraph 5 only if it is –
- a. an eligible institution;
 - b. a person included in the list maintained by the Bank of England for the purposes of section 43 of the Financial Services Act (listed money market institutions); or
 - c. an authorised person who is regulated by a recognised self-regulating organisation (or by the Financial Services Authority) or a person registered and regulated by the Commission in respect of investment business of a kind which includes the writing or purchasing of off-exchange futures or options as principal.
- 7 The terms of a derivatives transaction are approved for the purposes of paragraph 5 only if, before the transaction is entered into, the depositary is satisfied that the counterparty has agreed with the manager –
- a. to provide a valuation in respect of that transaction, on a buying and selling basis, or a mid-market price basis, as the case may be, –

- (i) at least once a week, and
 - (ii) at any other time at the request of the manager; and
 - b. that he will, at the request of the manager, enter into a further transaction to close out that transaction at a price which is reasonably related to the 'fair value' price (that is at a price corresponding with the value at which the derivative would be valued on the dual pricing basis, or the single pricing basis (as appropriate) under Part 4).
 - 8 A derivatives transaction is capable of valuation for the purposes of paragraph 5 only if the manager reasonably believes that, throughout the time of the life of the derivative (if the transaction is entered into), he will be able to value the investment concerned with reasonable accuracy on the basis of a pricing model which has been agreed between him and the depositary, or on some other reliable basis reflecting an up-to-date market value which has been so agreed.
 - 9 'Synthetic futures'. For the purposes of this Section, the manager may, in the two ways described in paragraph 10, create out of two options something in the nature of a composite derivative.
 - 10 The two ways referred to in paragraph 9 are that –
 - a. a bought call option coupled with a written put option will create a synthetic bought future; and
 - b. a bought put option coupled with a written call option will create a synthetic sold future,provided that the two options –
 - (i) are bought and written, whether simultaneously or not, on a single eligible derivatives market;
 - (ii) relate to the same underlying security or other asset;
 - (iii) give the purchasers of the options the same rights of exercise (whether at the same price or not); and
 - (iv) will expire, if not exercised, together.
 - 11 A derivatives or forward transaction which will or could lead to delivery of property to the depositary may be entered into only if –
 - a. such property can be held by the pool (or else the transaction is a bought future or bought call option); and
 - b. the manager reasonably believes that delivery of the property pursuant to the transaction will not occur or will not lead to a breach of these Rules.
 - 12 A transaction permitted under this Article may at any time be closed out.

5.24 Investment in collective investment funds

- 1 Up to 5% in value of the property of the pool may consist of units in collective investment funds or constituent parts, or their equivalent, of umbrella funds each of which –
 - a. is a regulated collective investment fund or constituent part, or its equivalent, thereof which is either a futures and options fund or a

- money market fund or a fund of a category that is equivalent to the category of one of such funds; or
 - b. is within Article 5.14; or
 - c. would be within Article 5.14, if 5.14.1b. read as follows –
 - ‘b. is dedicated to investing funds raised from the public in approved and other derivatives (where most or all of the transactions in derivatives are fully covered by cash, securities or other derivatives) whether with or without transferable securities or covered forward transactions in currency or gold.’
- 2 Units in a collective investment fund or constituent part, or its equivalent, of an umbrella fund do not fall within paragraph 1 above if the fund is managed or operated by the manager or an associate of the manager of the investing pool, unless –
- a. the constitutional documents of the investing pool and its prospectus clearly state that the property of the investing pool may include such units; and
 - b. Article 5.70 (investment in other group collective investment funds) is complied with.

5.25 Cover for derivatives and forward transactions

- 1 Except where Article 5.27.1 applies, no derivatives or forward transaction may be entered into under this Section unless the maximum potential exposure created by the transaction, in terms of the principal or notional principal of the derivative or forward contract, is –
- a. covered individually under paragraph 2 or 3; and
 - b. covered globally under paragraph 4,
- and for this purpose the examples in paragraph 9 below may be relevant.
- 2 Subject to paragraph 3, exposure is covered individually if there is, in the property of the pool –
- a. (in the case of an exposure in terms of property) a transferable security or other property which is of the right kind, and sufficient in amount, to match the exposure; and
 - b. (in the case of an exposure in terms of money), cash or near cash (or borrowing pursuant to Article 5.27) or transferable securities which is or are, or, on being turned into money in the right currency, will be, sufficient in amount to match the exposure.
- 3 Exposure to an index or basket of securities or other assets is covered individually only if the recognized fund holds securities or other property which (taking into account the closeness of the relationship between fluctuations in the price of the two) can reasonably be regarded as appropriate to provide cover for the exposure, and they may be so regarded even if there is not complete congruence between the cover and the exposure.

- 4 Exposure is covered globally for the purposes of this Section if, after taking account of all the cover required under paragraph 2 or 3 for other positions already in existence, there is available adequate cover from within the property of the pool to enable the fresh transaction to be entered into.
 - 5 Whether or not a derivative or forward transaction is available under Article 5.26 to provide cover for another derivative or forward transaction under this Section –
 - a. the two transactions involved in a ‘synthetic future’ are to be treated as if they were a single derivative, and the net exposure from the combination is to be covered on the basis of the higher of the cover requirements of the options which make up the synthetic future;
 - b. ‘synthetic cash’ (that is where a position in a derivative offsets an exposure in property to the point where that exposure has effectively been neutralised, and the effect of the combined holding of both property and the position in the derivative is the same as if the pool had received or stood to receive the value of the property in cash) is available to provide cover for a transaction as if it were cash.
 - 6 Cash not yet received into the property of the pool but due to be received within one month is available as cover for the purposes of paragraphs 2b. and 3.
 - 7 Subject to paragraph 5, to the extent that property of the pool has been used for cover in respect of one exposure (whether under this Section or otherwise), it is not available for cover in respect of another.
 - 8 Property is not available for cover if it is the subject of a transaction under Section L (stocklending), unless the manager reasonably believes that it is obtainable (by return or re-acquisition) in time to meet the obligation for which cover is required.
 - 9 Examples of the cover requirements are as follows –
 - a. A bought put option (or a written call option) on 1000 ordinary £1 shares (fully paid) of ABC plc has to be covered by an existing holding in the recognized fund of 1000 ordinary £1 shares (fully paid) of ABC plc (paragraph 2a. above).
 - b. A bought call option (or written put option) on 1000 ordinary £1 shares (fully paid) of ABC plc has to be covered by cover (in the form of cash or an allowable substitute for cash or transferable securities) which is sufficient in amount to meet the purchase of the shares on exercise of the option (paragraph 2b. above).
 - c. A sold contract for differences on short-dated sterling has to be covered by cash or near cash or transferable securities, the values of which together at least match the notional principal of the contract (e.g. a LIFFE short sterling contract, or a successive series of such contracts, is covered by £500,000) (paragraphs 2b. and 7 above).
 - d. A sold future on the FT-SE 100 Index may be covered by holdings of equities, (or a combination of cash (or near cash) and call options on that future) which satisfy the test of appropriateness for cover in paragraph 3 in relation to that future, and the values of which together at least match the current mark to market valuation of the future (e.g. if the multiplier per full index point is £25, and if the eventual obligation under the future is currently at 2800, the valuation of the futures position is $2800 \times £25 = £70,000$) (paragraph 3 above and Article 5.26).

- e. Where the manager of a pool, which has holdings in 'blue chip' UK shares, wishes to switch exposure to the US market, and decides to sell a FT-SE index future to the value of those shares (this transaction satisfying the test of appropriateness for cover in paragraph 3), then the sterling 'synthetic cash' position created may thereupon be used as cover for a S&P 500 index future provided that the manager ensures that the cover remains sufficient (e.g. by reference to the sterling/US dollar exchange rate) (paragraphs 3 and 5b. above).

5.26 Derivatives covering derivatives

- 1 Where the manager proposes to use a position resulting from a derivatives transaction as cover (whether in whole or in part) for the exposure of another derivatives transaction, Article 5.25 shall have effect as modified by this Article.
- 2 In this Article 'countervailing' means that one of the two derivatives has an exposure which, in terms of risk, is equal and opposite to the exposure of the other, and 'offset' means that there is an equal and opposite coverage in terms of risk.
- 3 On the basis that the requirements of Article 5.25 about the amount and right kind of assets used as cover are satisfied, the following Table contains the rules for the purposes of paragraph 1.

Table 5.1 - Derivatives covering derivatives: ground rules

RULES

- 1 A derivative of one type provides cover for a countervailing derivative of the same type (e.g. a bought future covers a sold future, and a bought call option covers a written call option).
- 2 A derivative of one type provides cover for a countervailing derivative of a different type if, but only if, –
 - a. the right under one offsets and is offset by the obligation under the other; or
 - b. rule 6 applies.
- 3 In applying rules 1 and 2, differences between the derivatives in terms of price, maturity and exercise price may be ignored, except where rule 4 applies.

- 4 Rule 1 above does not apply if an opportunity to exercise the right under the one derivative will become available to the pool only after the first date on which the potential obligation under the other may become an actual obligation.
 - 5 Where, under rule 1, the manager decides that a written option and a purchased option should provide mutual cover, the manager must arrange for the depositary to deposit and set aside with an eligible institution (and the manager may not use for the purposes of providing cover under these Rules) the whole amount of the difference between the exercise value of the two options (that is the amount which would be payable by or to the pool on exercise of the options) inclusive of any margin requirements of the exchange.
 - 6 A written option provides cover for, and is covered by, a countervailing future only if the option is in the money to the purchaser of the option; but if the written option is out of the money to the purchaser, then both it and the future must each be separately covered under Article 5.25.
 - 7 A contract for differences may be included in these rules if and to the extent that it has the characteristics of a future or an option.

5.27 Deposit arrangements (for purchased options) and borrowing

- 1 Deposit arrangements. Where the manager proposes to purchase an uncovered option in reliance on Article 5.22.4, he must arrange for the depositary to deposit and set aside with an eligible institution (and the manager must not use for the purposes of providing cover under these Rules) any amount by which 5% of the exercise value of the option (that is the amount which would be payable by the recognized fund on exercise of the option) exceeds the amount paid by way of premium.
 - 2 The amount to be deposited and set aside may be in cash or else in Government and other public securities (which are to be valued for this purpose at the current mark to market valuation).
 - 3 Borrowing. Cash obtained by borrowing, and borrowings which the manager reasonably regards an eligible institution to be committed to provide, are available for cover under Article 5.25, as long as the normal limits on borrowing (as to which see Articles 5.63 and 5.64) are observed.
 - 4 Where, for the purposes of this Section, the depositary –
 - a. borrows for the pool an amount of currency from an eligible institution; and
 - b. keeps an amount in another currency, at least equal to the borrowing for the time being in a., on deposit with the lender (or his agent or nominee),then this Section shall apply as if the borrowed currency, and not the deposited currency, were part of the property of the pool, and the normal limits on borrowing under Articles 5.63 and 5.64 do not apply to that borrowing.

5.28 Continuing nature of limits and requirements

- 1 The manager must, at each valuation point (and more frequently if necessary), re-calculate the amount of cover required in respect of derivatives and forward positions already in existence under this Section, and derivatives and rights under forward transactions under this Section may be retained in the property of the pool only so long as they remain covered both individually and globally under Article 5.25 (or, where relevant, the deposit requirements in Article 5.27 are complied with).
- 2 If at any time –
 - a. any fact or matter relating to the recognized fund or its economic environment; or
 - b. the aggregate of all outstanding derivatives or forward positions under this Section, is such that at least one of the relevant transactions (assuming it did not exist) could not then properly have been effected, either in that size or at all, the manager must forthwith on becoming aware of that fact take such steps as are necessary to rectify the situation, whether by closing out or providing additional cover or otherwise.

GEARED FUTURES AND OPTIONS FUNDS

5.29 Geared futures and options funds: general

- 1 Subject to this Section and to any other Sections of this Part, the property of the pool of a geared futures and options fund shall consist of any or all of the following –

 - c. derivatives under this Section;
 - d. forward transactions in currencies or gold under this Section;
 - e. cash or near cash (to which no limit applies);
 - f. units in collective investment funds under Article 5.32; and
 - g. gold.
- 2 In respect of investment within paragraph 1a., Section B above (securities funds) shall apply as if the pool were a securities fund, but subject to any special modification in this Section.
3. In respect of derivatives and forward transactions under paragraph 1.b., Section D above (futures and options funds), except Article 5.24, shall apply as if the pool were a futures and options fund, but subject to any special modifications in this Section.

- 4 In respect of derivatives within paragraph 1c. –
 - a. any derivatives transaction must be in an approved derivative, or else one which complies with Article 5.23.5 to 8 (off-exchange); and
 - b. any transaction in an approved derivative must be effected on or under the rules of an eligible derivatives market.
 - 5 In respect of transactions within paragraph 1d., this Section, except paragraph 4 above and Article 5.30.5, shall apply as if any forward transaction were a derivatives transaction; and the transaction must be with a counterparty which is within Article 5.23.6 (eligible institutions, listed money market institutions, etc.).
 - 6 Up to 10% in value of the property of the pool may be held in the form of gold.
 - 7 The depositary of a geared futures and options fund does not have power to borrow whether by virtue of this Section or Section K or otherwise.

5.30 Limits on investment in initial outlay

- 1 Subject to paragraph 3, up to 20% in value of the property of the pool at any time may be devoted to initial outlay in any derivatives transactions which are at any time outstanding.
 - 2 In these Rules, ‘initial outlay’ means the amount which the pool is required to pay, transfer or deposit as a fidelity deposit or otherwise in order to obtain rights under a derivatives transaction; and, for these purposes, –
 - a. regard shall be had to the rules of any relevant eligible derivatives market relating to margin, initial margin, premium etc.;
 - b. any increase in margin or initial margin, if required by such a market, is regarded as initial outlay from then on;
 - c. any decrease in margin or initial margin, if allowed by such a market, ceases to be initial outlay from then on;
 - d. variation margin (that is an additional sum required to be paid to retain the rights following a movement in prices etc.) is not initial outlay;
 - e. premium which may become payable in the future pursuant to the transaction in respect of an option is regarded as initial outlay from the outset;
 - f. in the case of a purchased option, the amount mentioned in paragraph 4 is to be regarded as initial outlay;
 - g. in the case of a written off-exchange option, the amount mentioned in paragraph 5 is to be regarded as initial outlay;
 - h. in the case of an off-exchange future, the amount mentioned in paragraph 6 is to be regarded as initial outlay; and
 - i. in the case of a forward transaction, the amount mentioned in paragraph 7 is to be regarded as initial outlay.

- 3 Up to 10% in value of the property of the pool may be used for initial outlay on derivatives transactions in the form of purchased options without it counting towards the 20% in paragraph 1, but the manager must deduct from the figure of 10% any percentage of the value of the property of the pool invested in transferable securities in the form of warrants.
 - 4 Where an option is purchased for the account of the pool, the manager shall ascertain the amount, if any, by which 5% of the exercise value of the option (that is the amount which would be payable or receivable by the pool on exercise of the option) exceeds the amount paid by way of premium.
 - 5 Where an off-exchange option is written for the account of the pool the manager shall ascertain at the outset and at each valuation the sum of –
 - a. 5% of the exercise value of the option (that is the amount which would be payable by the purchaser of the option, on exercise of the option); and
 - b. the amount, if any, by which the option is ‘in the money’ to the purchaser of the option.
 - 6 Where a transaction in an off-exchange future is entered into for the account of the pool, the manager shall ascertain at the outset and at each valuation the amount which is the sum of –
 - a. 5% of the value of the amount of property to be bought or sold pursuant to the contract; and
 - b. the amount, if any, by which the future would cause a loss to the pool if it were to be closed out.
 - 7 Where a forward transaction is entered into for the account of the pool, the manager shall ascertain at the outset and at each valuation the amount which is 5% of the value of the forward contract (that is the amount of currency or of gold to be purchased or sold pursuant to the transaction at the current valuation in the currency or one of the currencies relevant for the purposes of the transaction) for each period of three months (or part thereof) between the date of the latest valuation and the date of maturity.
 - 8 The manager shall arrange for the depositary to deposit and set aside with an eligible institution (and the manager must not use for the purposes of providing cover under these Rules) the amounts for the time being required by paragraphs 4, 5, 6 and 7.
 - 9 The amounts to be deposited and set aside may be in cash or else in Government and other public securities (which are to be valued for this purpose at the current mark to market valuation).

5.31 Spread

- 1 Subject to Article 5.30 there is no limit on the value of the property of the pool which may be devoted to initial outlay in respect of derivatives on or related to any one category of underlying security, commodity or factor.

- 2 Notwithstanding paragraph 1, the manager must exercise reasonable prudence in relation to the diversification of the property of the pool so far as it is devoted to derivatives, account being taken of the extent to which diversification is already achieved by use of derivatives which by their nature are broadly diversified (such as, for instance, derivatives related to a broadly based index).
 - 3 Up to 5% in value of the property of the pool may be devoted to initial outlay in respect of off-exchange transactions with any one counterparty.
 - 4 In paragraph 2, 'diversification' relates to diversification in terms of geographical sectors, economic sectors, currencies, commodities, maturity of instruments, exercise price under instruments and any other form of spreading of risk undertaken by a reasonably prudent investment manager.
 - 5 Up to 10% in value may be kept as cash on deposit with any one person.
 - 6 For the purposes of paragraph 5, the depositary and his associates are regarded as one person, and the manager and his associates as another.
 - 7 The figure of 10% in paragraph 5 may be regarded as 20% if the person is an eligible institution being an institution which has, or in the case of an eligible institution within the terms of sub-paragraph a. or e. of the definition of 'eligible institution' in Schedule 4 having a subsidiary or holding company which is an eligible institution which has, capital which is shareholders' funds of an amount, as most recently quoted in 'The Banker' magazine published by Financial Times Information Limited, of US$ 1,000,000,000 or more, provided that the amount of the aggregate of the deposits of all pools of the recognized fund do not exceed 10% of that person's issued capital and reserves as shown in its most recently published annual accounts.
 - 8 Paragraphs 5, 6 and 7 do not apply to a geared futures and options fund with respect to any deposit which is less than £1,000,000 (or the equivalent amount in the base currency).

5.32 Investment in collective investment funds

1. Up to 5% in value of the property of the pool may consist of units in collective investment funds or constituent parts, or their equivalent, of umbrella funds each of which –
 - a. is a regulated collective investment fund or constituent part, or its equivalent, thereof which is either a futures and options fund or a geared futures and options fund or a money market fund or a fund of a category that is equivalent to the category of one of such funds; or
 - b. is within Article 5.14; or
 - c. would be within Article 5.14, if 5.14.1b. read as follows –
 - 'b. is dedicated to investing funds raised from the public –
 - (i) in approved or other derivatives (where most or all of the transactions in derivatives are fully covered by cash, securities and other derivatives), whether with or

- without transferable securities or covered forward transactions in currency or gold, or
 - (ii) in approved and other derivatives (where the extent of investment is limited by the amount of the property of the pool available to be put up as initial outlay), whether with or without transferable securities and whether with or without investment within (i) above.’
- 2 Units in a collective investment fund or constituent part, or its equivalent, of an umbrella fund do not fall within paragraph 1 above if the fund is managed or operated by the manager or an associate of the manager of the investing pool, unless –
- a. the constitutional documents of the investing pool and its prospectus clearly state that the property of the investing pool may include such units; and
 - b. Article 5.70 (investment in other group collective investment funds) is complied with.

5.33 Delivery of property pursuant to a derivatives transaction

- 1 When entering into any derivatives transaction as a result of which any investment or asset may become part of the property of the pool, the manager must comply with paragraph 2 (where the investment or asset is one of which the property of the pool could in some measure consist) or with paragraph 3 (in any other case).
- 2 Where this paragraph applies, the manager must reasonably believe that the transaction will not result in any breach of these Rules –
- a. either because it can readily be closed out; or
 - b. because the investment or asset concerned will at the expected time be included within the property of the pool in a manner which conforms with these Rules.
- 3 Where this paragraph applies, the manager must reasonably believe that the transaction can readily be closed out.
- 4 Where, in the event the belief in paragraph 2 or 3 proves unjustified, and the manager decides with the consent of the depositary, pursuant to Article 7.13, that it is in the interests of the unitholders that the property should temporarily be acquired, then the property concerned may, notwithstanding anything else in these Rules, form part of the property of the pool until the position can be rectified.

5.35 Permitted and approved immovables

- a. the constitutional documents of the investing pool and its prospectus clearly state that the property of the investing pool may include such units; and

- b. Article 5.70 (investment in other group collective investment funds) is complied with.

5.38 Property related limits

- 2 Up to 25% in value of the property of the pool may consist of approved immovables which are unoccupied and non-income producing or in course of substantial development, redevelopment or refurbishment.

5.39 Mortgaged property

- 1 Up to 15% in value of that part of the property of the pool which for the time being consists of immovables may consist of mortgaged immovables.
- 2 An immovable subject to one or more hypothecs or mortgages may be retained in the pool only so long as the hypothec or mortgage or each of the hypothecs or mortgages is an approved mortgage, the total sums outstanding under which do not exceed 50% of the value of the immovable (assuming for this purpose that the immovable is not hypothecated or mortgaged).
- 3 In these Rules, a hypothec or mortgage is an approved mortgage only if the depositary reasonably believes that the hypothec or mortgage can be discharged on demand or within 28 days by repayment of all the money secured by the hypothec or mortgage (including, where appropriate, any additional sum provided for under the hypothec or mortgage) and that the hypothec or mortgage is 'non-recourse' in nature, that is that there is no property on which the hypothec or mortgage is secured, whether immediately or contingently, other than the approved immovable in question.

5.40 Spread

- 1 Up to 15% in value of the property of the pool may consist of any one immovable.
 - 2 In paragraph 1 'one immovable' includes adjacent or contiguous immovables.
 - 3 The figure of 15% in paragraph 1 may be regarded as 25% once the immovable has been included in the property of the pool in compliance with that paragraph.
 - 4 Up to 5% in value of the property of the pool may consist of property related assets issued (or conferring rights to investments issued) by any one issuer.
 - 5 The figure of 5% in paragraph 4 may be regarded as 10% in respect of up to 40% of the value of the property of the pool.

- 2 Subject to paragraphs 3 and 4, during the first two years starting with the date on which the recognized fund receives a recognized fund certificate valid in relation to the pool (or on which the period of the initial offer commenced, if later) –

 - b. the obligation, derived from Article 5.34, that (unless properly held or invested elsewhere) at least 20% in value of the property of the pool must consist of approved immovables does not apply.

- 1 Subject to this Section and to any other Sections of this Part, the property of the pool which is a fund of funds shall consist of units in recognized funds and/or other regulated collective investment funds.
- 2 A fund of funds may not invest in –
 - a. a feeder fund;
 - b. a fund of funds;
 - c. any constituent part, or its equivalent, of an umbrella fund which is a pool constituting a. or b; or
 - d. a regulated collective investment fund which would, if it were a recognized fund, fall within a or b.
- 3 Up to 20% in value of the property of the pool may consist of units in any one pool or other regulated collective investment fund.

5.48 Eligible combinations of funds

SECTION K

EFFICIENT PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT

5.50 Efficient portfolio management: general

- 1 This Section applies to any pool.
- 2 In the application of this Section to a feeder fund or fund of funds, Articles 5.51.2.c. and 5.52.2.b. do not apply.
- 3 This Section is subject to any restriction in the constitutional documents or in the prospectus.

5.51 Appropriate transactions

- 1 This Section enables the manager or the company to enter into transactions of the kind specified in Article 5.54 (permitted transactions) for the purpose of efficient portfolio management, but only when each of the following two conditions is satisfied –
 - a. the transaction is economically appropriate to that purpose, as required by Article 5.52; and
 - b. the transaction is fully covered, as required by Article 5.55.
- 2 The purpose of efficient portfolio management is to achieve one or more of the following in respect of the pool –
 - a. the reduction of risk;

- b. the reduction of cost; and
 - c. the generation of additional capital or income for the recognized fund with no, or with an acceptably low level of, risk.
- 3 The purpose in paragraph 2 relates to –
- a. property of the pool;
 - b. property (whether precisely identified or not) which is to be or is proposed to be acquired for the pool; and
 - c. anticipated cash receipts of the pool, if due to be received at some time and likely to be received within one month.

5.52 Economic appropriateness

- 1 Any transaction under this Section must be one which (alone or in combination with one or more others) is reasonably believed by the manager to be economically appropriate to the efficient portfolio management of the pool.
- 2 This means that the manager must reasonably believe that –
- a. for transactions undertaken to reduce risk or cost (or both), the transaction (alone or in combination) will diminish a risk or cost of a kind or level which it is sensible to reduce; and
 - b. for transactions undertaken to generate additional capital or income, the pool is certain (or certain barring events which are not reasonably foreseeable) to derive a benefit from the transaction.
- 3 Where, for example, the manager wishes to achieve a switch in exposure, he may do so, rather than through sale and purchase of the property of the pool, by use of derivatives (a technique commonly called ‘tactical asset allocation’) if the transactions concerned reasonably appear to him to satisfy paragraphs 1 and 2.a.
- 4 A transaction may not be entered into under this Section if its purpose could reasonably be regarded as speculative.
- 5 Where the transaction relates to the actual or potential acquisition of transferable securities, then the manager must intend that the scheme should invest in transferable securities within a reasonable time; and he must thereafter ensure that, unless the position has itself been closed out, that intention is realised within that reasonable time.

5.53 Generation of additional capital or income

- 1 There is an acceptably low level of risk, for the purposes of Article 5.51.2.c, in any case where the manager reasonably believes that the pool is certain (or certain barring events which are not reasonably foreseeable) to derive a benefit –
- a. on a basis set out in paragraph 2 or 3; or
 - b. pursuant to Section L (stocklending).
- 2 The first basis is that the pool takes advantage of pricing imperfections in relation to the acquisition and disposal (or disposal and acquisition) of rights in relation to the same or equivalent property, being property which the pool holds or may properly hold.

- 3 The second basis is that the pool receives a premium for the writing of a covered call option or a covered put option, even if that benefit is obtained at the expense of surrendering the chance of yet greater benefit.

5.54 Permitted transactions

- 1 A transaction under this Section must be –
 - a. a derivatives transaction; or
 - b. a forward transaction in a currency (or, where the property of the pool may include gold, in gold).
- 2 A derivatives transaction under paragraph 1.a. must be –
 - a. in an approved derivative (as defined in Article 5.08.2); or
 - b. one which complies with Articles 5.23.5 to 8 (off-exchange); or
 - c. a ‘synthetic future’ which complies with Articles 5.23.9 and 10.
- 3 Any transaction in an approved derivative must be effected on or under the rules of an eligible derivatives market.
- 4 Any forward transaction must be with an approved counterparty which is within Article 5.23.6 (eligible institutions, listed money market institutions, etc.).
- 5 No more than 5% of the value of the property of the pool may be directed to initial outlay in respect of off-exchange transactions with any one counterparty.
- 6 A derivatives or forward transaction which would or could lead to delivery of property to the depositary may be entered into only if –
 - a. such property can be held by the pool;
 - b. the manager reasonably believes that delivery of the property pursuant to the transaction will not lead to a breach of these Rules.
- 7 A transaction permitted under this Article may at any time be closed out.

5.55 Cover for transactions under this Section

- 1 No transaction may be entered into under this Section unless the maximum potential exposure created by the transaction, in terms of the principal or notional principal of the derivative or forward contract, is –
 - a. covered individually under paragraph 2 or 3; and
 - b. covered globally under paragraph 4,and for this purpose the examples in paragraph 10 below may be relevant.
- 2 Subject to paragraph 3, exposure is covered individually if there is, in the property of the pool –

- a. (in the case of an exposure in terms of property) a transferable security or other property which is of the right kind, and sufficient in amount, to match the exposure; and
 - b. (in the case of an exposure in terms of money), cash or near cash (or borrowing pursuant to Article 5.56) or transferable securities which is or are, or, on being turned into money in the right currency, will be, sufficient in amount to match the exposure.
- 3 Exposure to an index or basket of securities or other assets is covered individually only if the pool holds securities or other property which (taking into account the closeness of the relationship between fluctuations in the price of the two) can reasonably be regarded as appropriate to provide cover for the exposure, and they may be so regarded even if there is not complete congruence between the cover and the exposure.
 - 4 Exposure is covered globally for the purposes of this Section if, after taking account of all the cover required under paragraph 2 or 3 for other positions already in existence, there is available adequate cover from within the property of the pool to enable the fresh transaction to be entered into.
 - 5 A derivative or forward transaction is not available to provide cover for another derivative or forward transaction under this Section, but –
 - a. the two transactions involved in a ‘synthetic future’ are to be treated as if they were a single derivative, and the net exposure from the combination is to be covered on the basis of the higher of the cover requirements of the options which make up the synthetic future;
 - b. ‘synthetic cash’ (that is where a position in a derivative offsets an exposure in property to the point where that exposure has effectively been neutralised, and the effect of the combined holding of both property and the position in the derivative is the same as if the pool had received or stood to receive the value of the property in cash) is available to provide cover for a transaction as if it were cash; and
 - c. a covered currency forward or a covered currency derivative may provide cover for a derivative.
 - 6 Cash not yet received into the property of the pool but due to be received within one month is available as cover for the purposes of paragraphs 2.b. and 3.
 - 7 Subject to paragraph 5, to the extent that property of the pool has been used for cover in respect of one exposure, (whether under this Section or otherwise), it is not available for cover in respect of another.
 - 8 Property anticipated under a derivative does not count as property under paragraph 2.a.
 - 9 Property is not available for cover if it is the subject of a transaction under Section L (stocklending), unless the manager reasonably believes that it is obtainable (by return or re-acquisition) in time to meet the obligation for which cover is required.
 - 10 Examples of the cover requirements are as follows –

- a. A bought put option (or a written call option) on 1000 ordinary £1 shares (fully paid) of ABC plc has to be covered by an existing holding in the pool of 1000 ordinary £1 shares (fully paid) of ABC plc (paragraph 2.a. above).
- b. A bought call option (or written put option) on 1000 ordinary £1 shares (fully paid) of ABC plc has to be covered by cover (in the form of cash or an allowable substitute for cash or transferable securities) which is sufficient in amount to meet the purchase price of the shares on exercise of the option (paragraph 2.b. above).
- c. A sold contract for differences on short-dated sterling has to be covered by cash or near cash or transferable securities, the values of which together at least match the notional principal of the contract (e.g. a LIFFE short sterling contract, or a successive series of such contracts, is covered by £500,000) (paragraphs 2.b. and 7 above).
- d. A sold future on the FT-SE 100 Index has to be covered by holdings of equities, which satisfy the test of appropriateness for cover in paragraph 3 in relation to that future, and the values of which together at least match the current mark to market valuation of the future (e.g. if the multiplier per full index point is £25, and if the eventual obligation under the future is currently at 2800, the valuation of the futures position is $2800 \times £25 = £70,000$) (paragraph 3 above).
- e. Where the manager of a recognized fund, which has holdings in 'blue chip' UK shares, wishes to switch exposure to the US market, and decides to sell a FT-SE index future to the value of those shares (this transaction satisfying the test of appropriateness for cover in paragraph 3), then the sterling 'synthetic cash' position created may thereupon be used as cover for a S&P 500 index future provided that the manager ensures that the cover remains sufficient (e.g. by reference to the sterling/US dollar exchange rate) (paragraphs 3 and 5.b. above).

5.56 Borrowing in the context of efficient portfolio management

- 1 Cash obtained by borrowing, and borrowings which the manager reasonably regards an eligible institution to be committed to provide, are available for cover under Article 5.55, as long as the normal limits on borrowing (as to which see Article 5.63 and 5.64) are observed.
- 2 Where, for the purposes of this Section, the manager –
 - a. borrows for the pool an amount of currency from an eligible institution; and
 - b. keeps an amount in another currency, at least equal to the borrowing for the time being in a., on deposit with the lender (or his agent or nominee),

then this Section shall apply as if the borrowed currency, and not the deposited currency, were part of the property of the fund, and the normal limits on borrowing under Articles 5.63 and 5.64 below do not apply to that borrowing.

5.57 Continuing nature of limits and requirements

- 1 The manager must, at each valuation point (and more frequently if necessary), re-calculate the amount of cover required in respect of positions already in existence under this Section, and derivatives and rights under forward transactions under this Section may be retained in the property of the pool only so long as they remain covered both individually and globally under Article 5.55.
- 2 If at any time –
 - a. any fact or matter relating to the pool or its economic environment; or
 - b. the aggregate of all outstanding positions under this Section,is such that at least one of the relevant transactions (assuming it did not exist) could not then properly have been effected, either in that size or at all, the manager must forthwith on becoming aware of that fact take such steps as are necessary to rectify the situation, whether by closing out or by providing additional cover or otherwise.

SECTION L

STOCKLENDING

5.58 Stocklending: general

- 1 This Section applies to any pool to which Section K (efficient portfolio management) applies, but not to a feeder fund or fund of funds.
- 2 The powers conferred by this Section may be exercised by such a pool for the purpose of efficient portfolio management, that is when it reasonably appears to the manager to be economically appropriate to do so with a view to generating additional income for the pool with no, or an acceptable degree of, risk.
- 3 Paragraphs 1 and 2 are subject to any restrictions in the constitutional documents or prospectus.

5.59 Permitted stocklending

- 1 The depositary may, at the request of the manager, enter into a stocklending arrangement (in relation to the property of the pool) whereby the property of the pool is to be borrowed by a third party, but only if –
 - a. all the terms of the agreement under which securities are to be re-acquired by the depositary are in a form acceptable to the depositary and in accordance with good market practice; or

- b. the counterparty is an authorised person or a person included in the list maintained for the purposes of section 43 of the Financial Services Act (listed money market institutions) or, in the case of stocklending effected through Clearstream or Euroclear, is acceptable to Clearstream or Euroclear as the case may be although undisclosed to the depositary; and
 - c. either collateral is obtained which is –
 - (i) acceptable to the depositary;
 - (ii) adequate within Article 5.61.1; and
 - (iii) sufficiently immediate within Article 5.61.2, or in the case of stocklending effected through Clearstream or Euroclear, a guarantee is given to the depositary by Clearstream or Euroclear as the case may be which guarantees the transfer to the account of the depositary of the securities transferred to the account of the borrower under the stocklending arrangement of securities of the same kind and value, in the event of any default on the part of the borrower.

- 2 The counterparty for the purpose of paragraph 1 is the person who is obliged pursuant to or in consequence of the agreement referred to in paragraph 1a to transfer to the depositary or to the relevant account with Clearstream or Euroclear, as appropriate, the securities transferred by, or to the order of, the depositary under the stocklending arrangement or securities of the same kind.

5.60 Limitation by value

There is no limit on the value of the property of the pool which may be the subject of transactions within this Section.

5.61 Treatment of collateral

- 1 Collateral is adequate only if it –
 - a. exceeds in value, at the time of the transfer to the depositary, the value of the securities transferred by the depositary;
 - b. is transferred to the depositary or its agent;
 - c. is the subject of an agreement for transfer of the collateral, or of assets equivalent to the collateral, by the depositary as soon as the need for it has disappeared; and
 - d. is in the form of one or more of the following –
 - (i) cash,
 - (ii) near cash,
 - (iii) Government and other public securities,
 - (iv) a certificate of deposit,
 - (v) a letter of credit,
 - (vi) securities transferred in CREST by a DBV, or

- (vii) securities transferred in the Clearstream or Euroclear systems.
- 2 Collateral is sufficiently immediate if –
- a. it is transferred before or at the time of the transfer of the securities by the depositary; or
 - b. the depositary reasonably believes at that time that it will be transferred at the latest by the close of business on the day of the transfer.
- 3 The depositary shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that the value of the collateral at all times exceeds the value of the securities transferred by the depositary.
- 4 Any agreement for transfer of securities or of collateral (or of the equivalent of either) under this Section at a future date may be regarded, for the purposes of valuation under Part 4 or these Rules, as an unconditional agreement for the sale or transfer of property, whether or not the property is part of the property of the pool.
- 5 Collateral transferred to the depositary is part of the property of the pool for the purposes of these Rules except in the following respects –
- a. it does not fall to be included in any valuation for the purposes of Part 4 or these Rules, because it is offset under paragraph 4 above by an obligation to transfer;
 - b. it does not count as property for any purpose of Part 5 (other than this Section).
- 6 Paragraph 4 and paragraph 5a do not apply to any valuation of collateral itself for the purposes of this Section.
- 7 The duty in paragraph 3 may be regarded as satisfied in respect of collateral the validity of which is about to expire or has expired, where the depositary reasonably believes that sufficient collateral will again be transferred at the latest by the close of business on the day of expiry.

SECTION M

- c. a geared futures and options fund,

but the property of the pool of any such pool may consist of cash and near cash without limitation.

- 3 Paragraph 1 does not apply to a geared futures and options fund.

 - (i) the duration of any period of borrowing, and
 - (ii) the number of occasions on which resort is had to borrowing in any period; and
 - b. the manager must ensure that no period of borrowing exceeds 3 months, whether in respect of any specific sum or at all, without the prior consent of the depositary, which may be given only on such conditions as appear to the depositary appropriate to ensure that the borrowing does not cease to be on a temporary basis only.
- 5 This Article does not apply to ‘back to back’ borrowing under Article 5.56.2.
- 6 A recognized fund shall not issue any debenture falling within paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Act.

 - 4 This Article does not apply to 'back to back' borrowing under Article 5.56.2.
 - 5 In this Article, 'borrowing' includes, as well as borrowing in a conventional manner, any other arrangement designed to achieve a temporary injection of money into the property of the pool, in the expectation that the sum will be repaid, for example by way of a combination of derivatives which produces an effect similar to a borrowing but does not include any arrangement for the company to pay to a third party (including the manager) any costs which the recognized fund is entitled to amortise under Article 8.12 and which were paid on behalf of the recognized fund by such third party.

5.65 Restriction on lending of money

- 1 None of the money in the property of the fund of any recognized fund may be lent.
- 2 Acquiring a debenture is not lending for the purposes of paragraph 1; nor is the placing of money on deposit or in a current account.
- 3 Paragraph 1 does not prevent a company from providing an officer of the company with funds to meet expenditure to be incurred by him for the purposes of the company (or for the purposes of enabling him properly to perform his duties as an officer of the company) or from doing anything to enable an officer to avoid incurring such expenditure.

5.66 Restriction on lending of property other than money

- 1 None of the property of the fund other than money may be lent by way of deposit or otherwise.
- 2 Transactions falling within Section L (stocklending) are not lending for the purposes of paragraph 1.

5.67 General power to underwrite or accept placings

- 1 Subject to any restriction in the constitutional documents, any power in this Part to invest in transferable securities may be used for the purpose of entering into transactions to which this Article applies.

- 2 Subject to paragraph 3, this Article applies to any agreement or understanding (whereby transferable securities will or may become part of the property of the fund) –
 - a. which is an underwriting or sub-underwriting agreement; or
 - b. which contemplates that securities will or may be issued to or subscribed for or acquired by the recognized fund.
- 3 This Article does not apply to –

 - (i) to subscribe for or acquire a transferable security, or
 - (ii) to convert one transferable security into another.
- 4 No agreement or undertaking to which this Article applies may be entered into if it relates to units in a collective investment fund.
- 5 The exposure of a recognized fund to agreements and undertakings within paragraph 2 must, on any business day –
 - a. be covered under Article 5.55 as if the exposure had been incurred in the context of Section K (efficient portfolio management) by means of transactions in approved derivatives; and
 - b. be such that, if all possible obligations arising under them had immediately to be met in full, there would be no breach of any limit in these Rules.

5.68 Guarantees and indemnities

- 1 A recognized fund shall not provide any guarantee or indemnity in respect of the obligations of any third party and none of the property of the fund may be used to discharge any obligation arising under a guarantee or indemnity given by the depositary or manager or the company or any director of the company with respect to the obligations of any third party.

- 2 Paragraph 1 does not apply to a derivatives or forward transaction under Section K (efficient portfolio management).

5.70 Investment in other group collective investment funds

 - a. on investment, either any amount by which the consideration paid out of the property of the first fund for the units in the second fund exceeds the price that would have been paid for the benefit of the second fund had the units been newly created or issued by it or, if such price cannot be ascertained by the manager of the first fund, the maximum amount of any charge permitted to be made by the issuer of units in the second fund; and
 - b. on disposal, the amount of any charge made for the account of the manager of the second fund or an associate of the manager in respect of the disposal.

 - b. forthwith notify to the trustee or the company any information which the manager receives relating to the accuracy of or any change to any entry in the register.
- 8 Nothing in this Part requires the trustee or company to make or alter any entry in the register or to issue any certificate or other document or to accept any transfer or conversion in any case where either of them considers it necessary or appropriate to carry out or complete identification procedures in relation to the unitholder or another person pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation.

- 2 The manager and the trustee or company must agree on the procedures to be followed in repurchasing units.
- 3 Where the procedures agreed under paragraph 2 require the unitholder to surrender any document (or provide any information) as a condition precedent to obtaining the proceeds of repurchase, they must also oblige the trustee or the company to issue the document or provide any relevant information relating to an entry on the register in a timely manner once it is in a position to do so under those procedures.
- 4 Where the constitutional documents enable bearer certificates to be issued, the trustee must determine the form of them, and the manager and trustee must agree on the procedures to be followed in respect of them.

- 2 The trustee and the company are not under any duty to accept a transfer –
- a. if the number or value of the units of any class sought to be transferred would result in the unitholder, or the transferee, holding less than any number or value stated in the prospectus as the minimum number or value to be held of the relevant class;
 - b. if the constitutional documents contain a limitation upon the categories of persons who may be unitholders and the transferee is not within one of those categories; or
 - c. if the instrument relates to units of more than one class.
- 3 Every instrument of transfer of units shall be signed by or on behalf of the unitholder transferring the units (or, in the case of a body corporate, sealed by that body or signed by one of its officers authorised so to sign) and, unless the transferee is the manager, the transferor shall be deemed to remain the unitholder until the name of the transferee has been entered in the register.
- 4 Every instrument of transfer must be left with the trustee or the company for registration accompanied by –
- a. any necessary declarations or other documents that may be required in consequence of any legislation now or hereafter from time to time in force; and
 - b. such other evidence as the trustee or company may require to prove the right of the transferor to transfer the units or in the case of a body corporate the authority of the signatory on its behalf.
- 5 All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the trustee or company in original, copy or non-documentary form for a period of ten years.
- 6 Upon registration of an instrument of transfer, a reference shall be made on the register enabling the name of the transferor and the transferee and the date of transfer to be identified.

6.07 Transfer of units by operation of law

- 3 Where any person becomes entitled to a unit in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any sole unitholder or of the survivor of joint unitholders –
 - a. he may, subject to b. below, upon producing such evidence as to his title as the trustee or company may properly require, either be registered himself as unitholder of the unit (upon giving to the trustee or company notice in writing that he so desires) or transfer the unit to some other person;
 - b. the provisions concerning transfer of units shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred and as if the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by the unitholder;
 - c. subject to d. below, the person so entitled may give a discharge for all monies payable in respect of the unit, but shall not until registered as a unitholder be entitled to receive notices or attend or vote at any meeting of unitholders, and

6.09 Conversion of units

- 1 This Article applies to any pool in relation to which there are units of more than one class in existence and governs the conditions of conversion of such units of one class into units of another class within the same pool.

- 2 Conversion by a unitholder is possible under this Article only if both classes of units are in existence and are offered for sale (the terms of which offer do not exclude the unitholder) at the time of the request for conversion.
 - 3 If a unitholder requests the manager to convert such units, the manager shall –
 - a. in the case of a unit trust make a request in writing to the trustee; and
 - b. in the case of a company, if the depositary gives its consent make the conversion,but he need not do so, nor need the trustee comply with his request if he does and the custodian need not give its consent, if the conversion would result in the unitholder holding less than any number or value of units of either class stated in the prospectus as the minimum number to be held.
 - 4 Subject to paragraph 3 the manager or trustee, as the case may be, shall convert the units which are the subject of the request into the appropriate number of units of the other class, and that number shall be determined by the manager, after consulting the depositary, on terms that are fair to the unitholder requesting conversion and to other unitholders.
 - 5 Part 4 above does not apply when units are converted under this Article.

6.10 Subdivision and consolidation of units

- 1 The manager or company may, unless expressly forbidden to do so by the constitutional documents, at any time or times when no bearer certificates are in issue with the approval of the depositary determine –

 - b. that two or more units shall be consolidated (whereupon those units shall stand consolidated).
- 2 Upon a subdivision or consolidation of units the trustee or company shall (unless it has done so before the subdivision or consolidation became effective) forthwith give to each unitholder (or to the first named of joint unitholders) whose name is entered in the register notice of the subdivision or consolidation.

6.11 Default by unitholder

Where –

- a. the unitholder of any units defaults in making any payment in money or a transfer of property due to the manager or the trustee or company under these Rules, or the constitutional documents, in respect of the creation or sale of units to that unitholder; and
- b. the trustee or company is satisfied that there has been such a default by such evidence furnished to the trustee or company as the trustee or company, as the case may be, shall require, the trustee or company may make any necessary deletion or alteration in the register; and thereafter the manager shall be entitled to the units in respect of which the defaulting unitholder's name has been removed from the register until those units are either cancelled or sold and paid for.

- 3 The manager must instruct the depositary from time to time in writing as to how rights attaching to the ownership of property of the fund are to be exercised; but not in the case where, under Article 7.10.2, the depositary has the right to decide after consultation with the manager or directors.
- 4 The duty at paragraph 1 extends to taking all reasonable steps, and exercising due diligence, to avoid the property of the fund being incorrectly priced, contrary to any provision of Part 4.

8.07 Charges on repurchase

- 1 If the prospectus so permits, the manager may make a charge (the “repurchase charge”) upon the repurchase or cancellation of units by the manager, whether acting as agent or principal, and the amount payable on repurchase or cancellation may be arrived at after deduction of the charge for the benefit of the manager, and that charge may be expressed either as a fixed amount, or calculated as a percentage of the proceeds of repurchase which would otherwise have been payable.
- 2 The amount or percentage of the repurchase charge may be expressed as diminishing over the time during which the unitholder has held the units, but may not be expressed as liable to vary in any other respect.
- 3 Where the manager is permitted to make a repurchase charge the amount shall not exceed the amount that would be derived by applying the rate or method prescribed in the prospectus at the date on which the relevant units were sold.
- 4 Where the prospectus of a recognized fund, whenever made available, is modified so as to include a repurchase charge the modification must be expressed so as to apply only to units created or sold after the date on which the modification takes effect.
- 5 A change in the rate or method of the repurchase charge which is adverse to unitholders seeking to have their units cancelled or repurchased must be limited so as to apply only to units which have been created or sold (whether at the request of the current unitholder or otherwise) after the date on which the modification takes effect.
- 6 The manager may not rely on any change in the rate or method of the repurchase charge, unless –
 - a. he has given notice in writing of that increase and of the date of its commencement to the depositary and to all the persons who ought reasonably to be known to him to have made an arrangement for the purchase of units at regular intervals;
 - b. he has revised the prospectus to reflect the new rate or method and the date of its commencement; and
 - c. 90 days have elapsed since the revised scheme particulars became available.
- 7 If a prospectus contains a statement relating to the amount, or the calculation of the amount, of a repurchase charge, it shall also contain a statement as to the determination of the order in which units, which have been acquired at different times by a unitholder, are to be taken to be repurchased or cancelled for the purpose of the imposition of the repurchase charge.

8.08 Exchange of units in umbrella funds

- 1 In the case of an umbrella fund, the manager may make a charge on an exchange of units in one constituent part for units in an other constituent part but the charge shall not exceed the aggregate of –

- a. any excess of the amount of the preliminary charge that would be applicable to a sale of the units being acquired (by reference to the current preliminary charge stated in the most recently published prospectus) over the preliminary charge actually paid on the original acquisition of the units being repurchased; and
 - b. the amount of any fee payable on switching specified in that prospectus.
- 2 The manager may not make a charge in excess of the fee referred to in paragraph 1(b), unless the prospectus contains a statement as to the determination of the order in which units which have been acquired at different times by a unitholder are to be taken to be repurchased or cancelled is to be determined in so far as necessary for calculating the maximum charge for an exchange of units in one constituent part for units in another constituent part.

8.09 Restricted payments

No payment or benefit, other than a payment or benefit to the manager not prohibited by these Rules, may be made out of or given at the expense of the property of the fund to any person in consideration of that person acquiring (whether directly, indirectly, absolutely or conditionally) or promoting the sale of, or agreeing so to acquire or promote the sale of, units in the recognized fund.

8.10 Performance fees

No payment may be made out of the property of the fund and no repurchase charge may be made if the amount or frequency of the payment or the amount of the repurchase charge is intended to depend upon fluctuations in the value of the property of the fund or the income attributable thereto or in the price of a unit of any class as compared with fluctuations in the value or price of property of any description or in an index or other factor designated for the purpose.

8.11 Movable and immovable property

A recognized fund shall not incur any expense for the use of any movable or immovable property except to the extent that such property is necessary for the direct pursuit of its business.

8.12 Amortisation

Without prejudice to Article 8.09, costs of the authorisation and formation of a recognized fund and of its initial offer or sale of units (or initial offer or sale of units in respect of a constituent part) may be amortised over a period not exceeding ten years.

8.13 Tax

The restrictions contained in this Part shall not affect any liability for any value added or similar tax related to a charge or expense, but any notice given in accordance with this Part and any statement in a prospectus relating to any charge or expense payable out of the property of the fund or by any unitholder or potential unitholder shall, if the person liable for the charge or expense may also be liable for such tax, contain a statement to this effect.

INCOME

9.01 Accounting periods

- 1 A recognized fund must have an annual and a half-yearly accounting period, and this Article determines what they are.
 - 2 A recognized fund must also have an accounting reference date, which is the date in any year stated in the most recently published prospectus as the date on which the recognized fund's annual accounting period is to end.
 - 3 The first annual accounting period shall, subject to the Company Law, begin –
 - a. where the recognized fund is the subject of an initial offer, on the first day of the period of the initial offer; or
 - b. in any other case, when the recognized fund is granted a recognized fund certificate,and each subsequent period shall begin immediately after the end of the one before.
 - 4 Each annual accounting period shall end either at the end of the day arrived at under paragraph 5 or, if the manager prefers, at the valuation point last preceding the end of that day.
 - 5 The day for paragraph 4 is –
 - a. the next accounting reference date after the beginning of the period in question; or
 - b. if that period is the first period or a period in the course of which a change in the accounting reference date takes place, and the next accounting reference date in either case is less than six months after the beginning of the period, and the manager after consulting the auditor so determines, the next but one accounting reference date.
 - 6 A half-yearly accounting period is a period beginning with the first day of an annual accounting period and ending on the day which is –
 - a. six months before the next accounting reference date; or
 - b. if the next accounting reference date is less than six months after that first day, six months before the next accounting reference date but one after that first day.
 - 7 The manager may, with the agreement of the depositary, elect that a particular annual or half-yearly accounting period shall end on a day which is not more than seven days after and not more than seven days before the day on which the period would otherwise end.

9.02 Annual income allocation date

- 1 A recognized fund, other than a recognized fund consisting only of roll-up units, must have an annual income allocation date, which is the date in any year stated in the most recently published prospectus as the date on or before which, in respect of each annual accounting period, an allocation of income is to be made.
- 2 The annual income allocation date must be a date within four months after the relevant accounting reference date.

9.03 Annual allocation of income

- 1 Other than in relation to a pool consisting only of roll-up units, at the end of each annual accounting period, the trustee or the directors shall arrange for the manager to transfer in the books of the recognized fund the income property attributable to the pool to an account to be known as 'the distribution account' and the amounts transferred shall be placed on deposit for an appropriate period which allows for any distribution payments to be made.
 - 2 The trustee or the directors, as the case may be, are not obliged to comply with paragraph 1 if it appears to them, having consulted the manager, that the average payment to the unitholders (disregarding unitholders of bearer certificates, unitholders of accumulation units, and unitholders who are the manager or the depositary or associates of either of them) by way of income would be less than £5.00 (or the equivalent amount in the base currency).
 - 3 Where the trustee or the directors decide under paragraph 2 not to distribute income, they must so inform the manager who must then immediately arrange either –
 - a. to carry the income forward to the next annual accounting period (and to regard it as received at the start of that period); or
 - b. to credit the income to the capital account.
 - 4 On or before each annual income allocation date the manager shall calculate under paragraph 5 the amount available for income allocation in respect of the immediately preceding annual accounting period, and he shall inform the trustee or directors of that amount.
 - 5 The calculation of available income is as follows –
 - a. take the aggregate of the income property received or receivable by the depositary or otherwise for the account of the pool in respect of the period;
 - b. deduct the aggregate of the charges, fees, expenses and other payments properly paid or payable in respect of the period in accordance with Article 8.06.1 (payments out of income);
 - c. add the manager's best estimate of any relief from tax on such charges and expenses;
 - d. make such other adjustments as the manager considers appropriate (in the case of paragraph (i) and (ii) below, after consulting the auditors) in relation to –

- (i) taxation,
 - (ii) the proportion of the price received or paid for units that is related to income (taking account of any provisions in the constitutional documents relating to income equalisation),
 - (iii) potential income which is unlikely to be received until 12 months after the income allocation date,
 - (iv) income which should not be accounted for on an accrual basis because of lack of information about how it accrues, and
 - (v) any transfer between income and capital account under Article 8.06; and
 - e. make any other adjustments (including for amortisation under Article 8.12) that the manager considers appropriate after consulting the auditors.
- 6 On or before the annual income allocation date, the manager shall allocate the available income to the units of each class in existence taking account of the provisions of its constitutional documents relating to the proportion of available income attributable to each class. This Article does not apply to any roll-up units.

9.04 Annual allocation to accumulation units

- 1 The amount of income allocated to accumulation units shall, with effect from the end of the annual accounting period, become part of the capital property and the interests of the unitholders in that amount shall be satisfied by an adjustment, as at the end of the period, in the proportion of the value of the property of the pool to which the price of a unit of the relevant class is related.
- 2 The adjustment under paragraph 1 shall be such as will ensure that the price of an accumulation unit of the relevant class remains unchanged notwithstanding the transfer of the income to the capital property.

9.05 Annual distribution to unitholders of income units

- 1 Subject to paragraph 2, where the units in existence in a pool are or include income units, on or before each annual income allocation date the manager shall give the depositary timely instructions sufficient to enable the distribution of the income allocated to those units among the unitholders and the manager rateably in accordance with the number of such units held or deemed to be held by them respectively at the end of the relevant annual accounting period and the depositary shall pay the distribution in accordance with the instructions.
- 2 Before distributing income under paragraph 1, there shall be –
 - a. deducted any amounts previously allocated by way of interim allocation of income in respect of that annual accounting period; and

- b. deducted and carried forward in the income account such amount as the manager and the directors may from time to time determine.
 - 3 Nothing in this Part of these Rules requires the distribution of income allocated to any units in any case where the manager or the depositary considers it necessary or appropriate to carry out or complete identification procedures in relation to the unitholder or another person pursuant to a statutory, regulatory or other legal obligation.

9.06 Interim allocations of income

- 1 This Article applies if at any time the most recently published prospectus –
 - a. states that an allocation of income may be made before the annual income allocation date in any year in respect of a period ('an interim accounting period') within the annual accounting period; and
 - b. specifies a date as the interim income allocation date in relation to that interim accounting period.
- 2 In such a case, Articles 9.03 to 9.05 shall apply so as to secure the making of an interim allocation of income as if –
 - a. the interim accounting period in question and all previous interim accounting periods in the same annual accounting period taken together, were the annual accounting period;
 - b. the interim income allocation date were the annual income allocation date; and
 - c. the manager and the company were to treat as the available amount of income for the interim allocation a sum in his or their opinion, as the case may be, not exceeding the amount which would be available for allocation of income if the interim accounting period and all previous interim accounting periods in the same annual accounting period taken together were an annual accounting period.

9.07 Income equalisation

The constitutional documents may provide that an allocation of income (whether annual or interim) to be made in relation to any class of units in respect of each unit created or sold during the accounting period in respect of which that income allocation is made shall include a capital sum ("income equalisation").

9.08 How distributions may be made

- 1 Any monies payable by the depositary to a unitholder in respect of any unit, the title to which is for the time being represented by a bearer certificate, may be paid by crossed cheque or warrant made payable to the person who, in such manner as is prescribed in the constitutional documents, has identified himself to the depositary as the person entitled

- to that distribution and may be sent by post to such address as that person shall have disclosed to the depositary for that purpose.
- 2 Any monies payable by the depositary to the manager or to a registered unitholder in respect of any unit may be paid –
 - (i) by crossed cheque or other means including directly to the registered unitholder's bank account and when sent through the post to the registered address of such unitholder or the first named of joint unitholders, as the case may be; or
 - (ii) by payment to the bank or other agent nominated in writing by the manager or unitholder or all of the joint unitholders, as the case may be, by means of the electronic transfer of funds or otherwise.
 - 3 The payment of any cheque to the first named of joint unitholders shall be as effective a discharge to the person making the payment as if such first named joint unitholder had been a sole unitholder.
 - 4 Every such cheque which is so sent or electronic or other payment which is so made shall be a satisfaction of the monies payable and shall be a good discharge to the person making the payment.
 - 5 Where the depositary holds an authority in writing given by the unitholder (or in the case of joint unitholders by all of them) which has been accepted by the trustee or company and is in such form and on such terms as the depositary shall consider sufficient he shall pay the amount payable in accordance with that authority and any payment so made shall be a good discharge to the depositary.
 - 6 Any distribution payment which shall remain unclaimed after a period of ten years from the date of payment shall then be transferred to and become part of the capital property and thenceforth neither the payee nor the unitholder nor any successor in title of his shall have any right thereto or therein.

9.09 Distribution statements and tax certificates

- 1 On or before each income allocation date (whether annual or interim) the depositary shall send to each unitholder (or to the first named of joint unitholders) entered in the register as at the end of the accounting period in question and shall on request give or send to every unitholder of units the title to which is represented by a bearer certificate –
 - a. a statement prepared by the manager showing the calculation of the amount to which the unitholder is entitled, whether or not the income is distributed to him or allocated to accumulation units and, where applicable, a statement of how much of the amount to which he is entitled represents income equalisation; and
 - b. if the manager so decides, a statement prepared by the manager identifying the sources of income attributable to the unitholders and the amount of tax, if any, withheld from, or accountable in respect of, such amount.

- 2 In the case of any distribution on liquidation or dissolution of the pool, any statement given in accordance with paragraph 1 shall show what proportion of the distribution represents capital and what proportion represents income.
 - 3 Paragraph 1b does not prevent the sending of a single tax certificate at least once in every annual accounting period.
 - 4 This Article does not apply in relation to the unitholders of roll-up units.

- 1 An amalgamation is a scheme of arrangement (notified to the Commission under Article 2.10 of these Rules whenever a recognized fund is involved) whereby the whole of the property of a pool, or of a collective investment fund (whether a recognized fund or not) or constituent part, or its equivalent, thereof, or body corporate becomes the property (but not the first property) of a recognized fund, and whereby unitholders (or shareholders) in the collective investment fund or body corporate receive units in the recognized fund.
 - 2 An amalgamation shall not result in the unitholders in a recognized fund becoming unitholders (or shareholders) in a collective investment fund which is not a regulated collective investment fund.

- 3 Where it is proposed that two or more pools should be amalgamated, the proposal will require the approval of the unitholders in the pool or any pool which would cease to exist if the proposal were implemented ('the discontinuing fund or funds').
 - 4 Where it is proposed that a pool should be subject to an amalgamation with a collective investment fund other than a recognized fund the proposal will require the approval of the unitholders in the pool.
 - 5 Where it is proposed that a collective investment fund or constituent part, or its equivalent, thereof or a body corporate should be discontinued and amalgamated with a pool ('the continuing fund'), the proposal will (irrespective of any other approval and subject to Article 4.08.2) require the approval of the unitholders in the continuing fund unless paragraph 6 applies.

- 2 A proposal for reconstruction requires, in respect of the pool being reconstructed, the approval of the unitholders in the pool.
- 3 Where it is proposed that property of the pool being reconstructed should become property of another pool, the proposal will (irrespective of any other approval and subject to Article 4.08.2) require the approval of the unitholders in that other pool, unless that approval would, by virtue of Article 11.05.5 and on the assumption that the property to be included were treated as a discontinuing fund, not have been required on an amalgamation.

11.07 Convening of meetings and attendance and voting thereat

- 1 The trustee or the manager of a unit trust, or in the case of a company the directors, may at any time convene a meeting of the unitholders at such a

11.08 Powers of a meeting of unitholders

A meeting of unitholders duly convened and held in accordance with this part of the Articles shall be competent by extraordinary resolution, or special resolution or ordinary resolution as the case may be, to require, authorise or approve any act, matter or document in respect of which any such resolution is required or expressly contemplated by these Rules, but shall not have any other powers, except such as are permitted by applicable law and are not inconsistent with these Rules, or are required by applicable law.

11.09 Notices of meetings of unitholders

- 2 No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless the requisite quorum is present at the commencement of business.

- 4 At least seven days' notice of any adjourned meeting of unitholders which is adjourned for 14 days or more shall be given in the same manner as for an original meeting and such notice shall state that one or more unitholders present in person or by proxy at the adjourned meeting whatever their number and the number of units held by them will form a quorum. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

11.11 The chairman

Subject to any applicable law, some person, who need not be a unitholder, nominated in writing by the trustee or the directors shall preside at every meeting of unitholders or if no such person is nominated or if at any meeting the person nominated shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting then the unitholders present in person or by proxy shall choose one of their number to be chairman.

11.12 Adjournment

The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting of unitholders at which a quorum is present, and shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

11.13 Votes at meetings

- 1 At any meeting of unitholders a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by the chairman, by the depositary or by one or more unitholders present in person or by proxy and holding or representing one-twentieth (or any proportion less than one-twentieth specified for this purpose in the constitutional documents) in value of all the units in issue on the date specified in Article 11.07.7.

 - 3 If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such a manner as the chairman may direct and the result of a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
 - 4 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith and a poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time and place as the chairman directs.
 - 5 The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.
 - 6 On a show of hands every unitholder who (being an individual) is present in person, or (being a corporation) is present by its representative properly authorised in that regard, shall have one vote.
 - 7 On a poll every unitholder who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every complete undivided share in the property of the fund and a further part of one vote proportionate to any fraction of such an undivided share of which he is the unitholder; and a unitholder entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
 - 8 A corporation being a unitholder may authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of unitholders and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual unitholder.
 - 9 In the case of joint unitholders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote whether in person or by proxy shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint unitholders and for this purpose seniority shall be

- 1 If the depositary is of the opinion that any resolution to be proposed is one in relation to which there is or might be a conflict of interest between the unitholders of one class of units and the unitholders of another class of units, whether such conflict might be in relation to classes which are both within a single pool or, additionally in the case of an umbrella fund, between the unitholders of a class of units in one constituent part and the unitholders of a class of units in another, such resolution shall be deemed to have been duly passed only if in lieu of being passed at a single meeting of all unitholders it shall be duly passed at separate meetings respectively of the unitholders of each class of units concerned.
- 2 This part of these Rules shall apply to each separate meeting held pursuant to paragraph 1 as it applies to other meetings.
