- (2) A warranty shall be a defence in such proceedings as aforesaid only if, not later than 3 days before the date of the hearing, the person charged has sent to the prosecution a copy of the warranty with a notice stating that the person intends to rely on it and specifying the name and address of the person from whom the warranty was received, and has also sent a like notice to that person.

 - (a) of any goods made up for sale or for delivery after sale (whether by way of pre-packing or otherwise) in or on a container marked with an indication of quantity;
 - (b) of any goods which, in connection with a sale or agreement for the sale thereof, have associated therewith a document purporting to state the quantity of the goods; or
 - (c) of any goods required by or under this Law to be pre-packed, or to be otherwise made up in or on a container for sale or for delivery after sale, or to be made for sale, only in particular quantities, being less than that marked on the container or stated in the document in question or than the relevant particular quantity, as the case may be, it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove that the deficiency arose –

- (i) in a case falling within sub-paragraph (a), after the making up of the goods and the marking of the container,

- (5) If in any proceedings for an offence under this Part or any Order made thereunder, being an offence in respect of any deficiency in the quantity of any goods sold, it is shown that between the sale and the discovery of the deficiency the goods were with the consent of the buyer subjected to treatment which could result in a reduction in the quantity of those goods for delivery to, or to any person nominated in that behalf by, the buyer, the person charged shall not be found guilty of that offence unless it is shown that the deficiency cannot be accounted for by the subjecting of the goods to that treatment.
- (6) In any proceedings for an offence under this Part or any Order made thereunder, being an offence in respect of any excess in the quantity of any goods, it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove that the excess was attributable to the taking of measures reasonably necessary in order to avoid the commission of an offence in respect of a deficiency in those or other goods.
- (7) If proceedings for an offence under this Part or any Order made thereunder in respect of any deficiency or excess in the quantity –
 - (a) of any goods made up for sale (whether by way of pre-packing or otherwise) in or on a container marked with an indication of quantity;

- (i) if the proceedings are with respect to one or more of a number of articles tested on the same occasion, shall have regard to the average quantity in all the articles tested,
- (ii) if the proceedings are with respect to a single article, shall disregard any inconsiderable deficiency or excess, and
