INTERPRETATION (JERSEY) LAW 1954

A LAW for promoting brevity and uniformity in enactments

Commencement [see endnotes]

1 Definitions with regard to enactments

- (1) In this Law and in every other enactment (as hereby defined) whether passed before or after the commencement of this Law, the expression “enactment”, unless a contrary intention appears, shall mean any provision of any Law passed by the States and confirmed by Order in Council and any provision of any regulations, Order, rules, bye-laws, scheme or other instrument passed or made in Jersey under the authority of any Order in Council or under any such Law as aforesaid.<sup>1</sup>
- (2) <sup>2</sup>
- (3) In this Law and in every other enactment, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Law, references to the passing or repeal of an enactment shall be construed, where appropriate, as references to the making or rescission of that enactment.
- (4) In this Law and in every other enactment, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Law, the expression “commencement”, when used with reference to an enactment, shall mean the time at which the enactment comes into operation.
- (5) <sup>3</sup>
- (6) <sup>4</sup>
- (7) Where the time at which an enactment, whenever passed or made, is to come into operation is expressed or calculated by reference to its promulgation, and the date of promulgation is unknown, that date shall be deemed to be the day the enactment was passed or made.<sup>5</sup>

2 Rules as to gender, number and grammatical variations of words defined

In this Law and in every other enactment, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Law, unless the contrary intention appears –

- (a) words importing the masculine gender shall include females;
- (b) words in the singular shall include the plural and words in the plural shall include the singular; and
- (c) grammatical variations of words to which definitions are assigned shall be construed in accordance with the definitions.

3 Application of penal enactments to bodies corporate

In the construction of every enactment relating to a punishable offence, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Law, the expression “person” shall, unless the contrary intention appears, include a body corporate:

Provided that nothing in this Article shall render any body corporate liable, in respect of any act or omission occurring before the date of the commencement of this Law, to any criminal proceedings to which that body corporate would not have been liable before that date.

4 Definitions<sup>6</sup>

- (1) The definitions in Part 1 of the Schedule shall, unless the contrary intention appears, apply to every enactment, whenever passed or made.
- (2) Part 2 of the Schedule shall have effect only as an index of definitions in other enactments which are of extended application.

5 Commonly used names<sup>7</sup>

In an enactment, unless the context otherwise requires, the name commonly applied to a country, place, body, administration, corporation, society, officer, functionary, person, party or thing shall mean the country, place, body, administration, corporation, society, officer, functionary, person, party or thing to which the name is commonly applied, whether or not the name is the formal or unabbreviated designation thereof.

6 <sup>8</sup>

7 Meaning of service by post

Where an enactment, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Law, authorizes or requires any document to be served by post, whether the expression “serve”, “give” or “send”, or any other expression is used, then, unless the contrary intention appears, the service shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the document, and, unless the contrary is proved, to have been effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

8 Meaning of bankruptcy<sup>9</sup>

In every enactment, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Law, references to a person becoming bankrupt shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as references to either –

- (a) the grant by the Royal Court of an application made by that person to place the person's property under the control of the Court (de remettre ses biens entre les mains de la Justice);
- (b) the declaring of the property of that person to be en désastre;
- (ba) the grant by the Viscount of a debt remission order in respect of that person's qualifying debts under the Debt Remission \(Individuals\) \(Jersey\) Law 2016;
- (c) the grant by the Royal Court of an application made by that person to make a general cession of the person's property (de faire cession générale de tous ses biens-meubles et héritages);
- (d) a decision of the Royal Court adjudging the property of that person to be renounced (adjudée renoncée);
- (e) in the case of a company, the winding up of the company by means of a creditors' winding up pursuant to the Companies \(Jersey\) Law 1991;
- (f) in the case of a limited liability company, the winding up of a limited liability company by means of a creditors' winding up under the Limited Liability Companies \(Winding Up and Dissolution\) \(Jersey\) Regulations 2022; or
- (g) in the case of a bank, the making of a bank winding up order under the Bank \(Recovery and Resolution\) \(Jersey\) Law 2017, and references to bankruptcy shall be construed accordingly.

9 Construction of references to enactments<sup>10</sup>

- (1) A reference in a Law to a Part, Article or Schedule by number only and without further identification is a reference to the Part, Article or Schedule of that number in that Law.
- (2) A reference in an Article or other division of a Law to a paragraph, sub-paragraph, clause or sub-clause by number or letter only and without further identification is a reference to the paragraph, sub-paragraph, clause or sub-clause of that number or letter in the Article or other division of that Law.
- (3) Unless the context otherwise requires, a reference in a Law to an enactment is a reference to that enactment as amended, revised or otherwise consolidated (within the meaning of the Legislation \(Jersey\) Law 2021) from time to time and includes a reference to that enactment as extended or applied under another enactment, including another provision of that Law.<sup>11</sup>
- (4) This Article shall apply, with the necessary changes, to a subordinate enactment as it applies to a Law.
- (5) This Article shall apply to all enactments, including this Law, whenever passed or made.
- (6) In this Article, "subordinate enactment" means an enactment passed or made under a Law or under the authority of an Order in Council.

10 Construction of subordinate enactments

Where any enactment, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Law, confers power to pass any other enactment, expressions used in that other enactment if it is passed after the commencement of this Law, shall, unless the contrary intention appears, have the same respective meanings as in the enactment conferring the power.

11 Construction of provisions as to exercise of powers and duties

- (1) Where an enactment, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Law, confers a power or imposes a duty, then, unless the contrary intention appears, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed from time to time as occasion requires.
- (2) Where an enactment, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Law, confers a power or imposes a duty on the holder of an office as such, then, unless the contrary intention appears, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed by the holder for the time being of the office, or, in case of his or her absence or incapacity, by the person for the time being performing the duty of that office.
- (3) <sup>12</sup>
- (4) <sup>13</sup>

11A Power to appoint to an office includes related powers<sup>14</sup>

- (1) If an enactment confers power to appoint a person to an office, unless the contrary is expressed the power includes power –
  - (a) to determine the terms and conditions of appointment;
  - (b) to remove or suspend a person from the office;
  - (c) to reappoint or reinstate a person to the office; and
  - (d) in the circumstances set out in paragraph (2), to appoint a person to the office in place of the last holder of the office.
- (2) The circumstances for the purposes of paragraph (1)(d) are where –
  - (a) the office is vacant;
  - (b) the person holding the office has been removed or suspended from office;
  - (c) the person holding the office is absent temporarily or permanently; or
  - (d) the person holding the office is incapacitated temporarily or permanently in a way that affects the person's performance.

12 Offences under 2 or more enactments, etc.

Where an act or omission constitutes an offence under 2 or more enactments, or both under an enactment and under the customary law of Jersey, whether any such enactment was passed before or after the commencement of this Law, the offender shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be liable to be prosecuted and punished under either or any of those enactments or under the customary law, but shall not be liable to be punished twice for the same offence.

13 Construction of penalties for offences<sup>15</sup>

- (1) Where, in an enactment, a penalty is specified in respect of an offence, unless the contrary intention appears, the offence shall be punishable by a penalty not exceeding the penalty specified.
- (2) Where a penalty for an offence is a fine and the amount of the fine or a level on the standard scale is not specified, the fine shall be construed as a fine of an unlimited amount.
- (3) Where, in an enactment, more than one penalty is specified for an offence, the use of the word “and” shall, unless the contrary intention appears, mean that the penalties may be imposed alternatively or cumulatively.
- (4) This Article shall apply to all enactments, whenever passed or made.

14 Deviation in forms<sup>16</sup>

Where a form is prescribed or specified by an enactment, deviations from that form not materially affecting the substance nor likely to mislead shall not invalidate the form used.

15 Measurement of distance

In the measurement of any distance for the purposes of any enactment, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Law, that distance shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be measured in a straight line on a horizontal plane.

16 <sup>17</sup>17 <sup>18</sup>18 Citation
