A LAW to provide for the naming of streets, and the numbering of premises in streets, rows of houses and blocks of buildings

Commencement [see endnotes]

1 Interpretation

In this Law –

“occupier”, “owner” and “Parish Assembly” have the same meanings as in the Rates \(Jersey\) Law 2005;

“street” includes any highway, footway, mews, square, court, alley or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not.¹

2 Naming of streets

- (1) The Parish Assembly may assign any name which it thinks fit to any street, whether or not in substitution for a name already given or assigned.
- (2) In the notice convening a Parish Assembly for the purposes of this Article, there shall be set forth the name which it is proposed to assign to the street, and particulars sufficient to identify the location thereof.

3 Indication of names of streets

Where a name has been assigned to any street, in pursuance of this Law, the Connétable shall cause the name so assigned to be marked in a conspicuous position on any building or structure in or near the street, and shall from time to time cause the inscription to be renewed when it becomes illegible.

4 Numbering of premises

- (1) For the purpose of distinguishing separate premises in any street, row of houses or block of buildings, the Connétable may assign numbers to such premises, whether or not in substitution for numbers already given or assigned.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), a number followed by a letter or a fraction shall be deemed to be a number.
- (3) The Connétable shall serve a notice on the owner or occupier of premises to which the Connétable assigns a number in pursuance of this Article, requiring such owner or occupier to mark that number on those premises and to remove therefrom any number which differs from that number.
- (4) Whenever the marking of a number assigned to premises in pursuance of this Article is destroyed, pulled down, defaced, obliterated or obscured, the Connétable may serve a notice on the owner or occupier of those premises requiring the Connétable to renew the marking.
- (5) If the owner or occupier of any premises on whom a notice is served under this Article fails to comply with the requirements of the notice within 30 days from the service thereof, the Connétable shall cause a number to be marked, removed or renewed, as the case may be, and the expense incurred by the Connétable in so doing shall be recoverable as a civil debt from the person in default.

5 Record of names and numbers

The Connétable shall keep a record of –

- (a) the names assigned to streets, in pursuance of Article 2 or by which they were commonly known at the date of the commencement of this Law; and
- (b) the numbers assigned to premises in pursuance of Article 4, and any person, may at any reasonable hour inspect such record and take a copy of any portion thereof.

6 Offences
