“weapons development” means the development or production of nuclear, radiological, biological or chemical weapons or the facilitation of that development or production.

2 Meaning of beneficial ownership and control

- (1) For the purposes of this Law, each of the following individuals is a beneficial owner or controller of a person (“other person”) where that other person is not an individual –
 - (a) an individual who is an ultimate beneficial owner of that other person (whether or not the individual is its only ultimate beneficial owner); and
 - (b) an individual who ultimately controls or otherwise exercises control over the management of that other person (whether the individual does so alone or with any other person or persons).
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1) it is immaterial whether an individual’s ultimate ownership or control is direct or indirect.
- (3) No individual is to be treated by reason of this Article as a beneficial owner of a person that is a body corporate the securities of which are listed on a regulated market.
- (4) In determining whether an individual is a beneficial owner or controller of another person, regard must be had to all the circumstances of the case, in particular the size of an individual’s beneficial ownership or degree of control having regard to the risk of that individual or that other person being involved in relevant activities.

3 Meaning of “customer due diligence measures” and “enhanced customer due diligence measures”

- (1) In this Article –

“customer” means a person;

“third party” includes a person, trust or any other legal arrangement.
- (2) “Customer due diligence measures” means, in respect of the customers of a relevant person’s financial services business, identification measures and on-going monitoring.
- (3) Identification measures are measures for –
 - (a) identifying the customer;
 - (b) determining whether the customer is acting for a third party and, if so –
 - (i) identifying that third party,

- (ii) where the third party is a person other than an individual, understanding the ownership and control of that third party and identifying each individual who is that third party's beneficial owner or controller,
 - (iii) where the third party is not a person –
 - (A) understanding the nature of the legal arrangement under which the third party is constituted (for example, in the case of a trust, the type of trust),
 - (B) identifying each person who falls within paragraph (8), and
 - (C) in respect of each person falling within paragraph (8) who is not an individual, understanding the ownership and control of that person and identifying each individual who is that person's beneficial owner or controller;
 - (c) in respect of a customer who is not an individual –
 - (i) identifying any person purporting to act on behalf of the customer and verifying the authority of any person purporting so to act,
 - (ii) understanding the ownership and control structure of that customer and the provisions under which the customer can enter into contracts, or other similar legally binding arrangements, with third parties, and
 - (iii) identifying the individuals who are the customer's beneficial owners or controllers;
 - (d) obtaining information on the purpose and intended nature of a business relationship or one-off transaction.
- (4) On-going monitoring means –
- (a) scrutinizing transactions undertaken throughout the course of a business relationship to ensure that the transactions being conducted are consistent with the relevant person's knowledge of the customer, including the customer's business and risk profile (such scrutiny to include, where necessary, the source of the funds); and
 - (b) ensuring that documents, data or information obtained under identification measures are kept up to date and relevant by undertaking reviews of existing records, including but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, reviews where any inconsistency has been discovered as a result of the scrutiny described in sub-paragraph (a).
- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (3), identification of a person means –
- (a) finding out the identity of that person, including that person's name and legal status; and
 - (b) obtaining evidence, on the basis of documents, data or information from a reliable and independent source that is reasonably capable of verifying that the person to be identified is who the person is said to be and satisfies the person responsible for the identification of a person that the evidence does establish that fact.
- (6) For the purposes of paragraph (3), the measures must include the assessment by the relevant person of the risk that any business relationship or one-off transaction will involve relevant activities, including obtaining appropriate information for assessing that risk.

- (7) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(b) and (c), measures for obtaining evidence must involve reasonable measures having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the degree of risk assessed.
- (8) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(b)(iii), a person falls within this paragraph if –
- (a) that person is, in relation to a trust that is the third party, a settlor or protector; or
 - (b) that person, having regard to the risk of that person being involved in relevant activities –
 - (i) has a beneficial interest in the third party, or
 - (ii) is the object of a trust power in relation to a trust that is the third party.
- (9) “Enhanced customer due diligence measures” mean customer due diligence measures that involve specific and adequate measures to compensate for the higher risk of relevant activities in a particular case.

4 Amendment of Articles

The Minister may, by Order, amend the meaning of any word, term or expression used in any of Articles 1, 2 and 3.

5 Conditions for giving a direction

- (1) The Minister may, after consultation with the Commission and any relevant supervisory body, give a direction under Article 6 if one or more of the following conditions are met in relation to a country or territory outside Jersey.
- (2) The first condition is that the international body known as the Financial Action Task Force has advised that measures should be taken in relation to the country or territory because of the risk that there is money laundering –
- (a) in the country or territory;
 - (b) by the government of the country or territory; or
 - (c) by persons resident or incorporated in the country or territory.
- (3) The second condition is that the Minister reasonably believes that there is a risk that there is money laundering –
- (a) in the country or territory;
 - (b) by the government of the country or territory; or
 - (c) by persons resident or incorporated in the country or territory,
- and that this poses a significant risk to the interests of Jersey.
- (4) The third condition is that the Minister reasonably believes that –
- (a) the development or production of nuclear, radiological, biological or chemical weapons, or their means of delivery, in the country or territory; or
 - (b) the doing in the country or territory of anything that facilitates the development or production of such weapons,
- poses a significant risk to the interests of Jersey.

- (5) For the purposes of paragraphs (3) and (4), a direction given by HM Treasury under paragraph 1(3) or (4) of Schedule 7 to the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 shall be sufficient for the Minister to form a reasonable belief that there is a significant risk to the interests of Jersey.
- (6) The States may, by Regulations, amend any of the conditions in this Article, including making provision in respect of any factors which will be sufficient for the Minister to form a reasonable belief that there is a significant risk to the interests of Jersey.

6 Directions

- (1) The Minister may, by Order, give a direction to –
 - (a) all persons who are within a description of relevant persons; or
 - (b) all relevant persons.
- (2) The Minister may give a direction to a particular relevant person.
- (3) A direction may impose requirements in relation to transactions or business relationships with –
 - (a) a person carrying on business in the relevant country or territory outside Jersey;
 - (b) the government of that country or territory;
 - (c) a person resident or incorporated in that country or territory.
- (4) Requirements referred to in paragraph (3) may be imposed in relation to –
 - (a) a particular person;
 - (b) all persons who are within a description of persons; or
 - (c) all persons,within that paragraph.
- (5) A direction may make different provision in relation to –
 - (a) different descriptions of recipient;
 - (b) different descriptions of designated person; and
 - (c) different descriptions of transaction or business relationship.
- (6) Descriptions of transactions or business relationships for the purposes of paragraph (5)(c) may, in particular, include transactions or business relationships of a particular branch (or description of branch) of a recipient.
- (7) The kinds of requirement that may be imposed by a direction under this Article are specified in paragraphs (8) to (11A).²
- (8) A direction may require a recipient to undertake enhanced customer due diligence measures –
 - (a) before entering into a transaction or business relationship with a designated person; and
 - (b) during a business relationship with such a person.

- (9) A direction imposing a requirement referred to in paragraph (8) may do either or both of the following –
- (a) impose a general obligation to undertake enhanced customer due diligence measures, it being for the recipient to determine those measures and to which of the customer due diligence measures described in Article 3 such enhanced measures relate;
 - (b) require a recipient to undertake specific measures identified or described in the direction.
- (10) A direction may require a recipient to provide such information and documents as may be specified in the direction, such information and documents relating to transactions and business relationships with the designated person.
- (11) A direction may require a recipient not to enter into or not to continue to participate in –
- (a) a specified transaction or business relationship with a designated person;
 - (b) transactions or business relationships of a specified description with a designated person; or
 - (c) any transaction or business relationship with a designated person.
- (11A) A direction may require a recipient to treat a person, in relation to whom requirements are imposed under paragraphs (3) and (4), as if that person were a designated person for the purpose of Part 3 of the Sanctions and Asset-Freezing \(Jersey\) Law 2019.³
- (12) A direction imposing a requirement referred to in paragraph (10) must specify how the direction is to be complied with, including –
- (a) the person to whom the information and documents are to be provided; and
 - (b) the period within which, or intervals at which, information and documents are to be provided.
- (13) The power referred to in paragraph (10) is not exercisable in relation to information or documents in respect of which a claim to legal professional privilege could be maintained in legal proceedings.
- (14) The requirements imposed by a direction must be proportionate having regard to the advice mentioned in Article 5(2) or, as the case may be, the risk mentioned in Article 5(3) or (4) to the interests of Jersey.
- (15) In this Article, a transaction or business relationship with a designated person includes any transaction or business relationship between the relevant person and –
- (a) any person acting on behalf of, or at the direction of, the designated person; and
 - (b) any person in relation to whom the designated person is –
 - (i) a beneficial owner or controller, or
 - (ii) a holding body within the meaning of the Companies \(Jersey\) Law 1991,regardless of whether or not the designated person is directly involved in such transaction or business relationship.

7 Procedural requirements for general directions under Article 6(1)

- (1) This Article applies to a direction given under Article 6(1).
- (2) The Minister must take such steps as he or she considers appropriate to bring the giving of the direction to the attention of the recipients.
- (3) The Order (if not previously revoked and whether or not amended) ceases to have effect at the end of the period of one year beginning with the day on which it was made.
- (4) Paragraph (3) is without prejudice to the giving of a further Order.
- (5) When the Order is amended or ceases to have effect (whether on revocation or otherwise), the Minister must take such steps as he or she considers appropriate to publicize that fact.

8 Procedural requirements for specific directions under Article 6(2)

- (1) This Article applies to a direction given to a particular relevant person under Article 6(2).
- (2) The Minister must give notice of the direction to the recipient.
- (3) The Minister may revoke or amend such a direction at any time.
- (4) A direction (if not previously revoked and whether or not amended) ceases to have effect at the end of the period of one year beginning with the day on which the direction is given.
- (5) Paragraph (4) is without prejudice to the giving of a further direction.
- (6) Where a direction is amended or ceases to have effect (whether on revocation or otherwise), the Minister must give notice of that fact to the recipient.

9 Directions limiting or ceasing business: exemption by licence

- (1) Where a direction contains requirements of a kind mentioned in Article 6(11), the Minister may grant a licence to exempt acts specified in the licence from those requirements.
- (2) A licence may be –
 - (a) general or granted to all persons who are within a description of persons or to a particular person;
 - (b) subject to conditions; and
 - (c) of indefinite duration or subject to an expiry date.
- (3) The Minister may amend or revoke a licence at any time.
- (4) On the grant, amendment or revocation of a licence, the Minister must –
 - (a) in the case of a licence granted to a particular person, give notice of the grant, amendment or revocation to that person; or
 - (b) in the case of a general licence or a licence granted to all persons who are within a description of persons, take such steps as the Minister considers appropriate to bring notice of the grant, amendment or revocation to the attention of the persons who are affected by it.

10 Applications in relation to a direction or licence⁴

- (1) Subject to Article 11, any person affected by a decision of the Minister under this Law may apply to the Court to set aside the Minister's decision.
- (2) In determining whether the decision should be set aside, the Court must apply the principles applicable on an application for judicial review.
- (3) If the Court decides that the decision should be set aside it may make any such order, or give any such relief, as may be made or given in proceedings for judicial review.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (3), if the Court sets aside the Minister's decision to give a direction (including amending a direction) it must –
 - (a) quash the direction if given by notice; or
 - (b) direct the Minister to revoke the relevant Order forthwith, if the direction is given by Order.
- (5) This Article does not apply to any decision of the Minister to make an Order under Article 4.

11 Where the Minister relies on a HM Treasury direction

- (1) No application under Article 10 shall lie to set aside the Minister's decision to give a direction if the Minister certifies that, in giving the direction, the Minister formed a reasonable belief concerning a risk to the interests of Jersey in reliance on a direction given by HM Treasury described in Article 5(5).
- (2) A certificate under paragraph (1) shall specify the direction on which the Minister relied.
- (3) If the direction specified in accordance with paragraph (2) –
 - (a) is set aside (whether or not on appeal) following proceedings under section 63 of the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008;
 - (b) ceases to have effect under paragraph 15(3), or is contained in an order which ceases to have effect under paragraph 16(4), of Schedule 7 to that Act; or
 - (c) is revoked under paragraph 15(4) of Schedule 7 to that Act or is contained in an order which was revoked in accordance with paragraph 16(3) of Schedule 7 to that Act,the Minister's direction given in reliance on that direction shall be deemed to be revoked on the date that the decision to set aside takes effect or the direction ceases to have effect or is revoked or the order containing the direction ceases to have effect or is revoked, as the case may be.
- (4) If, to the Minister's knowledge, the direction specified in accordance with paragraph (2) is varied in a material particular, or the order containing the direction is varied in a material particular, paragraph (1) shall not apply unless the direction made by the Minister has been amended to achieve an equivalent effect.
- (5) The States may, by Regulations, amend this Article.

12 Rules of court, disclosure and special counsel

- (1) The Schedule has effect.

- (2) The States may, by Regulations, amend the Schedule.

13 Disclosure of information

Information may be disclosed for the purpose of –

- (a) enabling or facilitating the exercise of the Minister's functions under this Law; or
- (b) complying with any requirement under Article 6(10) of this Law, notwithstanding any restriction on such disclosure, whether imposed by statute or otherwise, and such disclosure shall not give rise to any cause of action in any proceedings.

14 Offences

- (1) A person who fails to comply with a requirement imposed by a direction shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) No offence under paragraph (1) is committed if the person took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to ensure that the requirement would be complied with.
- (3) In deciding whether a person has committed an offence under paragraph (1), the court must consider whether the person followed any relevant guidance or code of practice that was at the time issued by the Commission or any other relevant supervisory body.
- (4) In deciding whether a person has committed an offence under paragraph (1) –
 - (a) non-compliance by the person with any relevant provision of guidance or a code of practice may be relied on as tending to establish liability; and
 - (b) compliance by the person with any relevant provision of guidance or such a code may be relied on as tending to negative liability.
- (5) A recipient of a direction who intentionally participates in activities knowing that the object or effect of them is (whether directly or indirectly) to circumvent a requirement imposed by the direction shall be guilty of an offence.
- (6) A person who, for the purpose of obtaining a licence under Article 9 –
 - (a) provides information that is false in a material respect or a document that is not what it purports to be; and
 - (b) knows that, or is reckless as to whether, the information is false or the document is not what it purports to be,is guilty of an offence.
- (7) A person guilty of an offence under this Article is liable to imprisonment for a term of 7 years and to a fine.⁵
- (8) A person may commit an offence under this Law by conduct wholly or partly outside Jersey.
- (9) Nothing in paragraph (8) affects any criminal liability arising otherwise than under that paragraph.

15 Service of notices

- (1) Any notice required by this Law to be given to any person may be given to or served on the person in question –
 - (a) by delivering it to the person;
 - (b) by leaving it at the person's proper address;
 - (c) by sending it by post to the person at that address; or
 - (d) by sending it to the person at that address by facsimile, electronic transmission or other similar means that produces a document containing the text of the communication in legible form or is capable of doing so.
- (2) Any such notice may –
 - (a) in the case of a company incorporated in Jersey, be served by being delivered to its registered office;
 - (b) in the case of a partnership, company incorporated outside Jersey or unincorporated association, be given to or served on the secretary or other similar officer of the partnership, company or association or any person who purports to act in any such capacity, by whatever name called, or to or on the person having the control or management of the business, as the case may be.
- (3) For the purposes of this Article and of Article 7 of the Interpretation \(Jersey\) Law 1954 in its application to this Article, the proper address of any person to or on whom a notice is to be given or served by post shall be the person's last known address or, where a notice is served as described in paragraph (2), the address of the registered office (if there is one) or main business address of the company, partnership, or unincorporated association.
- (4) If the person to or on whom any notice is to be given or served has notified the Commission or any relevant supervisory body of an address within Jersey other than the person's proper address within the meaning of paragraph (3), as the one at which the person or someone on the person's behalf will accept documents, that address shall also be treated for the purposes of this Article and Article 7 of the Interpretation \(Jersey\) Law 1954 as the person's proper address.

16 Regulations and Orders

An Order or Regulations under this Law may contain such transitional, consequential, incidental or supplementary provisions as appear to the Minister or the States, as the case may be, to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the Order or Regulations.

17 Citation

This Law may be cited as the Money Laundering and Weapons Development (Directions) (Jersey) Law 2012.

SCHEDULE⁶

(Article 12)

RULES OF COURT, DISCLOSURE AND SPECIAL COUNSEL

1 Application

This Schedule applies to –

- (a) proceedings under Article 10 of this Law; or
- (b) proceedings on an appeal relating to proceedings under Article 10 of this Law.

2 Powers to make rules of court

Article 13 of the Royal Court \(Jersey\) Law 1948 or Article 19 of the Court of Appeal \(Jersey\) Law 1961, as the case requires, shall be read to include the provisions of this Schedule for the purpose of making rules of court in relation to proceedings to which this Schedule applies.

3 General provisions about rules of court

- (1) In making rules of court, the Court or the Court of Appeal, as the case requires, must have regard to –
 - (a) the need to secure that the decisions that are the subject of the proceedings are properly reviewed; and
 - (b) the need to secure that disclosures of information are not made where they would be contrary to the public interest.
- (2) Rules of court may make provision –
 - (a) about the mode of proof and about evidence in the proceedings;
 - (b) enabling or requiring the proceedings to be determined without a hearing; and
 - (c) about legal representation in the proceedings.
- (3) Rules of court may make provision –
 - (a) enabling the proceedings to take place without full particulars of the reasons for the decisions to which the proceedings relate being given to a party to the proceedings (or to any legal representative of a party to the proceedings);
 - (b) enabling the court to conduct proceedings in the absence of any person, including a party to the proceedings (or any legal representative of a party to the proceedings);
 - (c) about the functions of special counsel;
 - (d) enabling the court to give a party to the proceedings a summary of evidence taken in the party's absence.

- (4) In this paragraph –
 - (a) references to a party to the proceedings do not include the Minister;
 - (b) references to a party's legal representative do not include special counsel.

4 Rules about disclosure

- (1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) to (5), rules of court must secure that the Minister is required to disclose –
 - (a) material on which he or she relies;
 - (b) material that adversely affects his or her case; and
 - (c) material that supports the case of a party to the proceedings.
- (2) Rules of court must secure –
 - (a) that the Minister has the opportunity to make an application to the court before which the proceedings take place for permission not to disclose material otherwise than to –
 - (i) the court, or
 - (ii) special counsel;
 - (b) that such an application is always considered in the absence of every party to the proceedings (and in the absence of every legal representative of every party to the proceedings);
 - (c) that the court is required to give permission for material not to be disclosed if it considers that the disclosure of the material would be contrary to the public interest;
 - (d) that, if permission is given by the court not to disclose material, it must consider requiring the Minister to provide a summary of the material to every party to the proceedings (and to every legal representative of every party to the proceedings); and
 - (e) that the court is required to ensure that such a summary does not contain material the disclosure of which would be contrary to the public interest.
- (3) Rules of court must secure that in cases where the Minister –
 - (a) does not receive the court's permission to withhold material, but elects not to disclose it; or
 - (b) is required to provide every party to the proceedings (and every legal representative of every party to the proceedings) with a summary of material that is withheld, but elects not to provide the summary,provision applies to the effect set out in sub-paragraph (4).
- (4) The court must be authorized by the rules of court –
 - (a) if it considers that the withheld material (whether or not a summary of that material is required) might adversely affect the Minister's case or support the case of a party to the proceedings, to direct that the Minister shall not rely on the material, or shall make such concessions or take such other steps, as the court may specify; or

- (b) in any other case, to ensure that the Minister does not rely on the withheld material (whether or not a summary of that material is required).
- (5) Nothing in this paragraph, or in rules of court as referred to in it, is to be read as requiring the court to act in a manner inconsistent with Article 6 of the Human Rights Convention.
- (6) In this paragraph –
 - (a) references to a party to the proceedings do not include the Minister;
 - (b) references to a party’s legal representative do not include special counsel; and
 - (c) “the Human Rights Convention” means the Convention within the meaning of the Human Rights \(Jersey\) Law 2000.

5 Appointment of special counsel

- (1) The Attorney General shall appoint a panel of persons, such panel consisting of not less than 10 advocates of the Court, for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (2) A person appointed under sub-paragraph (1) may be removed from the panel at any time by the Attorney General whether or not at the person’s request.
- (3) Subject to sub-paragraph (5), the Court or Court of Appeal, as the case requires, may appoint a person (“special counsel”) who is –
 - (a) a member of the panel; or
 - (b) eligible to be appointed as a special advocate under the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008,for the purposes described in sub-paragraph (4).
- (4) Those purposes are to represent the interests of a party to –
 - (a) proceedings from which the party (and any legal representative of the party) is excluded; or
 - (b) proceedings (being proceedings on an appeal) from which the party (and any legal representative of the party) is excluded.
- (5) A person referred to in sub-paragraph (3)(b) shall not be appointed under sub-paragraph (3) unless the Court or the Court of Appeal, as the case requires, is satisfied that it is in the public interest or in the interests of justice to appoint such a person in the particular circumstances of the proceedings in question.
- (6) A person appointed under sub-paragraph (3) is not responsible to the party to the proceedings whose interests the person is appointed to represent.
