TERRITORIAL SEA (CONSEQUENTIAL PROVISIONS) (JERSEY) LAW 1994

A LAW to provide for various matters in consequence of the extension of the territorial sea adjacent to Jersey

Commencement [see endnotes]

1 Interpretation

- (1) In this Law, unless the context otherwise requires –
- “Act” means the Territorial Sea Act 1987 of the United Kingdom as it has effect in Jersey by virtue of an Order in Council under section 4(4) of that Act; and
- “extended territorial sea” means any area which becomes part of the territorial sea adjacent to Jersey under or by virtue of section 1 of the Act.
- (2) Unless the context otherwise requires, a reference in this Law to an enactment –
- (a) is a reference to that enactment as amended from time to time;
- (b) includes an enactment of the United Kingdom as extended or applied to Jersey.

2 General modifications of enactments

Subject to the provisions of this Law, a reference, however worded, in any enactment, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Article, to the territorial sea adjacent to Jersey shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of section 1 of the Act and with any provision made or having effect as if made, under that section.

3 Amendment of enactments

- (1) The enactments specified in the Schedule shall be amended in accordance with that Schedule (being minor amendments and amendments consequential on the extension of the territorial sea).

- (2) The States may make Regulations amending any enactment passed or made before this Law comes into force to an extent similar in nature to the amendments made by the Schedule to this Law.

4 Citation

This Law may be cited as the Territorial Sea (Consequential Provisions) (Jersey) Law 1994.

SCHEDULE

(Article 3(1))
