- (2) Anything done (or having effect as if done) by or in relation to the Bishop of Winchester in connection with the jurisdiction as Bishop in respect of Jersey (in pursuance of the Order of 1569 or customary or statutory law since the Order of 1569) has effect, so far as necessary for its continuing effect after commencement of this Order, as if done by or in relation to the Bishop of Salisbury.
- (3) This article does not affect the validity of anything done (or having effect as if done) by or in relation to the Bishop of Winchester in connection with jurisdiction as Bishop in respect of Jersey from the Order of 1569 until commencement of this Order.
- (4) In this article “Order of 1569” means the Order of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth I made on the eleventh day of March 1569 with the advice of Her Privy Council and in the exercise of Her prerogatives as Sovereign in right of the Bailiwick of Jersey pursuant to which Jersey was attached to the episcopal See of Winchester.
