(c) a member State of the European Union; or,

(d) Republic of Mauritius.¹

2 Exemption from Article 42 of the Law

In respect of companies which have issued listed shares, a transfer of such shares is exempt from the provisions of Article 42(1) of the Law where the following conditions are met in respect of that transfer –

(a) the transfer is made –

(i) to or from an approved central securities depository, or

(ii) by means of a computer system; and

(b) the transfer is in accordance with the relevant laws applicable to, and relevant rules and regulations of, the approved stock exchange on which the shares are listed.

3 Exemption from Article 50 of the Law

(1) Subject to paragraph (2) a company is not required to comply with Article 50(1) of the Law in respect of any allotment or transfer of its listed shares.

(2) A company which has received a written request at any time from a member in respect of listed shares held by that member shall, within 2 months of receipt by that company of that written request, complete and have ready for delivery the certificate of such shares in respect of which the request was made unless the conditions of allotment of the shares otherwise provide.
