INSURANCE BUSINESS (GENERAL PROVISIONS) (JERSEY) ORDER 1996

THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE, in pursuance of Articles 5(4), 6, 7(8), 21(3) and 41 of the Insurance Business \(Jersey\) Law 1996¹, orders as follows –

Commencement [see endnotes]

1 Long term and general business exemptions

- (1) For the purposes of Article 5(5)(b) of the Law, there is hereby prescribed general business of class 14, 15, 16, 17 or 18.
- (2) For the purposes of Article 5(5)(f) of the Law, there is hereby prescribed any company incorporated in Jersey by or on behalf of an individual carrying on class 1 long term business solely for that individual and the individual's dependants.

2 General business (benefit in kind) exemptions

- (1) For the purposes of Article 5(5)(c) of the Law, there is hereby prescribed any contract of insurance which –
 - (a) is a contract under which the benefits provided by the insurer are exclusively or primarily benefits in kind in the event of accident to or breakdown of a vehicle; and
 - (b) contains the terms specified in paragraph (2).
- (2) The terms referred to in paragraph (1) are –
 - (a) that, subject to such restrictions as may be set out in the contract, the assistance shall normally be available on demand;
 - (b) that the assistance shall normally be provided by the insurer's servants or exceptionally by garages acting as the insurer's agents or appointed by the insurer;
 - (c) that the assistance may take any one or more of the following forms –
 - (i) repairs to the relevant vehicle at the roadside,
 - (ii) removal of the relevant vehicle to another place,

- (iii) conveyance of the relevant vehicle's occupants to another place,
 - (iv) delivery of parts, fuel, oil, water or keys to the relevant vehicle,
 - (v) reimbursement of the policy holder for all or part of any sums paid by the policy holder in respect of the assistance either because the policy holder failed to identify himself or herself as the policy holder or because the policy holder was unable to get in touch with the insurer in order to claim the assistance.
- (3) In this Order –
- “assistance” means the benefits to be provided under a contract of the kind prescribed in paragraph (1);
- “breakdown” means an event –
- (a) which causes the driver of the relevant vehicle involuntarily to bring the vehicle to a halt on a journey because of some malfunction of the vehicle or failure of it to function; and
 - (b) after which the journey cannot reasonably be continued in the relevant vehicle;
- “insurer” means the insurance company providing the assistance;
- “Law” means the Insurance Business \(Jersey\) Law 1996;
- “policy holder” means the person entitled to the assistance;
- “relevant vehicle” means the vehicle (including a trailer or caravan) in respect of which the assistance is required.

5 Conditions applicable to permits

For the purposes of Article 7(8) of the Law there are prescribed in the Schedule to this Order, the conditions set out which are applicable to all Category B permits.

6 Circumstances in which auditors or reporting persons are to communicate to the Commission³

- (1) In exceptional circumstances, where it is in the interests of protecting persons transacting insurance business with a permit holder that the permit holder should not be informed in advance, the auditor or person appointed to make a report under Article 10 of the Law, shall report direct to the Commission. For example (but without limiting the generality of the foregoing) –
- (a) where there has been an occurrence which causes the auditor or reporting person no longer to have confidence in the integrity of the directors or senior management, for example, where they believe that a fraud or other misappropriation has been committed by the directors or senior management of the permit holder, or they have evidence of the intention of directors or senior management to commit such fraud or misappropriation;

- (b) where there has been an occurrence which causes the auditor or reporting person no longer to have confidence in the competence of the directors or senior management to conduct the business of the permit holder in a prudent manner so as to protect the interests of policy holders, for example, where they have discovered that the directors or senior management are acting in an irresponsible or reckless manner with respect to the permit holder's affairs or they have evidence of an intention so to act;
 - (c) where the auditor or reporting person has reasonable cause to believe that there has been or is likely to be an occurrence of material significance for the exercise in relation to such a permit holder of the Commission's powers or functions under the Law.⁴
- (2) A direct report shall also be made where the permit holder will not itself inform the Commission of a matter, having been advised to do so by the auditor or reporting person or where it has not done so within the period of time specified, or where there is not adequate evidence that the permit holder has properly reported the matter in question.⁵

7 Duties and responsibilities of actuaries⁶

- (1) An actuary appointed by a permit holder under Article 25(1) of the Law shall –
- (a) prepare a valuation of the liabilities relating to the permit holder's long term business every year or more frequently if he or she considers it necessary in order properly to monitor the permit holder's margin of solvency; and
 - (b) endorse in writing the valuation basis and the calculation of the permit holder's solvency position in a statement provided as part of the annual financial statements required under Article 16 of the Law.
- (2) A valuation required by this Article shall be in accordance with such rules as may be in force and approved from time to time either by the Institute of Actuaries in England and Wales or the Faculty of Actuaries in Scotland.

8 Citation

This Order may be cited as the Insurance Business (General Provisions) (Jersey) Order 1996.
