30th September 1992

Your Excellency,

I have the honour to refer to the Convention on Social Security between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Government of the Kingdom of Sweden, signed at Stockholm on 29th June 1987 (hereinafter referred to as “the Convention”) and to recent discussions between the Department of Social Security and the Ministry of Health and Social Security concerning the need to amend the Convention. Accordingly, I have the honour to propose that the following should be inserted in Article 1(1) of the Convention:

- “(w) “Agreement” means the agreement dated 2nd May 1992 and made between the European Community, its Member States and the European Free Trade Association States establishing the European Economic Area;
- (x) “Regulation EEC No 1408/71” means the Regulation (EEC) No 1408/71 of the Council on the application of social security schemes to employed persons, to self-employed persons and to members of their families moving within the Community and includes amendments and adaptations from time to time applicable thereto;

and that the following should be inserted as Article 3A into the Convention:

England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland and Sweden cease to apply to all persons to whom the provisions of Regulation EEC 1408/71 and the Implementing Regulation are at that date or subsequently become applicable. Any rights in course of acquisition under this Convention immediately before the date of entry into force of the Agreement shall as regards persons to whom the Convention is disappplied by the provisions of this paragraph be determined in accordance with the provisions of those Regulations.
